HOUSE BILL NO. 580
95TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

AN ACT

To repeal section 287.090, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to compensation for emergency personnel killed in the line of duty, with an emergency clause.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 287.090, RSMo, is repealed and two new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 287.090 and 287.243, to read as follows:

287.090. 1. This chapter shall not apply to:

- 2 (1) Employment of farm labor, domestic servants in a private home, including family 3 chauffeurs, or occasional labor performed for and related to a private household;
- 4 (2) Qualified real estate agents and direct sellers as those terms are defined in Section 5 3508 of Title 26 United States Code;
- 6 (3) Employment where the person employed is an inmate confined in a state prison,
7 penitentiary or county or municipal jail, or a patient or resident in a state mental health facility,
8 and the labor or services of such inmate, patient, or resident are exclusively on behalf of the state,
9 county or municipality having custody of said inmate, patient, or resident. Nothing in this 10 subdivision is intended to exempt employment where the inmate, patient or resident was hired 11 by a state, county or municipal government agency after direct competition with persons who are 12 not inmates, patients or residents and the compensation for the position of employment is not 13 contingent upon or affected by the worker's status as an inmate, patient or resident;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

14 (4) Except as provided in section 287.243, volunteers of a tax-exempt organization
15 which operates under the standards of Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, 16 where such volunteers are not paid wages, but provide services purely on a charitable and 17 voluntary basis;

18 (5) Persons providing services as adjudicators, sports officials, or contest workers for 19 interscholastic activities programs or similar amateur youth programs who are not otherwise 20 employed by the sponsoring school, association of schools or nonprofit tax-exempt organization 21 sponsoring the amateur youth programs.

22 2. Any employer exempted from this chapter as to the employer or as to any class of 23 employees of the employer pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of 24 section 287.030 or pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may elect coverage as to the employer 25 or as to the class of employees of that employer pursuant to this chapter by purchasing and 26 accepting a valid workers' compensation insurance policy or endorsement, or by written notice 27 to the group self-insurer of which the employer is a member. The election shall take effect on 28 the effective date of the workers' compensation insurance policy or endorsement, or by written 29 notice to the group self-insurer of which the employer is a member, and continue while such 30 policy or endorsement remains in effect or until further written notice to the group self-insurer
31 of which the employer is a member. Any such exempt employer or employer with an exempt 32 class of employees may withdraw such election by the cancellation or nonrenewal of the workers' 33 compensation insurance policy or endorsement, or by written notice to the group self-insurer of 34 which the employer is a member. In the event the employer is electing out of coverage as to the 35 employer, the cancellation shall take effect on the later date of the cancellation of the policy or 36 the filing of notice pursuant to subsection 3 of this section.

37 3. Any insurance company authorized to write insurance under the provisions of this 38 chapter in this state shall file with the division a memorandum on a form prescribed by the 39 division of any workers' compensation policy issued to any employer and of any renewal or 40 cancellation thereof.

41 4. The mandatory coverage sections of this chapter shall not apply to the employment 42 of any member of a family owning a family farm corporation as defined in section 350.010,
43 RSMo, or to the employment of any salaried officer of a family farm corporation organized 44 pursuant to the laws of this state, but such family members and officers of such family farm 45 corporations may be covered under a policy of workers' compensation insurance if approved by 46 a resolution of the board of directors. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to apply to 47 any other type of corporation other than a family farm corporation.

48 5. A corporation may withdraw from the provisions of this chapter, when there are no 49 more than two owners of the corporation who are also the only employees of the corporation, by

50 filing with the division notice of election to be withdrawn. The election shall take effect and 51 continue from the date of filing with the division by the corporation of the notice of withdrawal 52 from liability under this chapter. Any corporation making such an election may withdraw its 53 election by filing with the division a notice to withdraw the election, which shall take effect 54 thirty days after the date of the filing, or at such later date as may be specified in the notice of 55 withdrawal.

117 are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any
