

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 2009

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richard in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

*(Yesterday, at sunset, the Jewish Feast of Passover began.
Today, in the Christian calendar, is Holy Thursday.
And today, we begin Easter break.)*

Almighty God, we praise and thank You for the love and concern You have for every person on the face of the Earth. We thank You for every way You have caused evil to pass over them that they might live in the peace, justice and freedom they have!

We pray for all who are away from home this holiday weekend in service of our country. We pray that the evils of violence, war and terrorism pass over them that they might return home soon.

We pray for the ability to so represent the people of our state that we cause justice and right to increase, so that every form of oppression pass over all the people. Then, may we all live in greater freedom and peace and celebrate the holidays together.

We thank You Almighty God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: James Kedley, Trevon Parks, MaTaya Dukes, Seth Viebrock, Matthew O'Dell, Amanda O'Dell, Elisabeth O'Dell, Hillary Foster, Thomas Brown, Alayna Brown and Natalie Denzer.

The Journal of the fifty-first day was approved as corrected.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, horse processing is the most tightly regulated of any animal harvest, and the horse is the only animal that has its transportation to processing regulated. If horse processing plants are forced to close and export options are eliminated, the Horse Welfare Coalition estimates that 90,000 to 100,000 unwanted horses annually would be exposed to potential abandonment and neglect; and

WHEREAS, the 90,000 to 100,000 additional unwanted horses each year would compete for adoption with the 32,000 wild horses that United States taxpayers are already paying $40 million to shelter and feed; and

WHEREAS, the nation's inadequate, overburdened, and unregulated horse rescue and adoption facilities cannot handle the influx of the approximately 60,000 or more additional horses each year that would result from a harvesting ban, according to the Congressional Research Service; and

WHEREAS, many zoo animal diets rely on equine protein because it mimics what the animal would receive in the wild. Veterinarians and animal nutritionists say it is the healthiest diet for big cats and rare birds. If legislation shuts down horse processing facilities, the only source for this meat that is inspected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will be eliminated:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Fifth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Congress to strongly support the continuation of horse processing in the United States and to offer incentives that help create horse processing plants throughout the United States, such as state-inspected horse harvest for export; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri General Assembly strongly encourage Congress to support new horse processing facilities and the continuation of existing facilities on both the state and national level; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri General Assembly urge Congress to oppose any legislation introduced in the 111th Congress that would restrict the transportation and processing of horses in the United States and internationally; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri General Assembly support the location of USDA-approved horse processing facilities on state, tribal, or private lands under mutually-acceptable and market-driven land leases and, if necessary, a mutually-acceptable assignment of revenues that meet the needs of all parties involved with the facility; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.
