

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 14, 2009

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richard in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, we thank You for the opportunity to participate in advancing justice and the common good during this 95th General Assembly.

We pray for the people of our state. We pray especially for those who have suffered loss of life, the lives of loved ones, or of property from high winds, tornados and excessive rainfall.

Lord God, by Your Fatherly care, bless the youth and children of our state; give them the grace to complete the school year with grades showing growth in wisdom, age and grace before God and man.

Finally, we pray for ourselves. We ask for the strength of perseverance to give each topic on the agenda of this day the attention it deserves.

To You be glory and honor forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Joseph Barnett, Benjamin Barnett and Philip Barnett.

The Journal of the seventy-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS HCS HB 1075, entitled:

An act to repeal section 288.330, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to unemployment compensation, with an emergency clause.

With Senate Amendment No. 1 and Senate Amendment No. 2.

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1075, Page 7, Section 288.330, Line 226, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"288.501. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary:

(1) If a claimant does not have sufficient wages in the base period to be an insured worker, as those terms are defined in section 288.030, the individual's base period shall be the four most recently completed calendar quarters preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year. Such base period shall be known as the "alternate base period". If information as to wages for the most recent quarter of the alternate base period is not available to the deputy from the regular quarterly reports of wage information, which are systematically accessible, the deputy may base the determination of eligibility for benefits on the affidavit of the claimant with respect to wages for that calendar quarter. The claimant shall furnish payroll documentation, where available, in support of the affidavit. The determination based upon the alternate base period as it relates to the claimant's benefit rights shall be amended if the quarterly report of wage information from the employer is timely received and that information causes a change in the determination. No calendar quarter in a base period or alternate base period for a claimant's current benefit year shall be used to establish a subsequent benefit year.

(2) The claimant shall not be disqualified from unemployment compensation for separating from employment if that separation is for any compelling family reason. For the purposes of this section, the term "compelling family reason" shall mean:

(a) The illness or disability of a member of the claimant's immediate family, which shall include the claimant's spouse, parent, or minor child under the age of eighteen;

(b) The need for the claimant to accompany such claimant's spouse to a location from which it is impractical for the claimant to commute and due to a change in location of the spouse's employment;

(c) Domestic violence, verified by reasonable and confidential documentation, which causes the claimant reasonably to believe that the claimant's continued employment would jeopardize the safety of the claimant or of any member of the claimant's family, as defined by the United States Secretary of Labor.

(3) A claimant who has commenced training under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998, or director-approved training under section 288.055, and has exhausted the claimant's regular unemployment benefits shall be eligible for additional unemployment benefits, not to exceed twenty-six times the claimant's weekly benefit amount. The weekly benefit amount shall be the same as the claimant's regular weekly benefit amount and shall be paid under the same terms and conditions as regular benefits. These training benefits shall be paid after any extended benefits or any similar benefits paid by a federally funded program.

(5) No charges shall be made against an employer's account in respect to benefits paid to a claimant under this section.

(6) The director shall separately track payments that were made under this section. Once the amount of payments exceeds the amount of federal incentive funds made available because of the enactment of this section, the unemployment compensation fund shall be reimbursed from general revenue for all subsequent payments to the claimants.

(7) The provisions of this section shall be subject to renewal in the second regular session of the ninety-fifth general assembly. If not renewed, the provisions of this section shall expire once the funds provided under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 are expended as provided in this section.

(8) The provisions of this section shall not take effect, and no benefits paid under this section, unless first certified by the United States Secretary of Labor under 42 U.S.C.1103, as amended by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009."; and Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 2

"288.130. 1. Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate payroll and other related records, containing such information as the division may by regulation prescribe for a period of at least three calendar years after the record was made. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by authorized representatives of the division at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. Any authorized person engaged in administering this law may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to individuals performing services for it, which are deemed necessary for the effective administration of this law.

2. 3. Each employer shall post and maintain in places readily accessible to the employer's workers printed statements concerning benefit rights, claims for benefits and such other matters related to the administration of this law as the division may by regulation prescribe. Each employer shall supply to workers copies of any printed statements relating to claims for benefits when and as the division may by regulation prescribe. Such printed statements and other materials shall be supplied by the division without cost.

4. A deputy shall make an ex parte determination after investigation but without hearing with respect to any matter pertaining to the liability of an employing unit which does not involve a claimant. The deputy shall promptly notify any interested employing units of each such determination and the reason for it. The division shall grant a hearing before an appeals tribunal to any employing unit appealing from any such ex parte determination provided an appeal is filed in writing within thirty days following the date of notification or the mailing of such determination to the party's last known address. In the absence of an appeal any such determination shall become final at the expiration of a thirty-day period. The deputy may, however, at any time within a year from the date of the deputy's determination, for good cause, reconsider the determination and shall promptly notify all interested employing units of his amended determination and the reason for it.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 21

WHEREAS, "25 by 25" is a renewable energy initiative proposing that America's agricultural and forestry sectors produce 25 percent of the nation's energy requirements from renewable resources by the year 2025 while continuing to produce abundant and safe food and fiber; and

WHEREAS, having an affordable, reliable, and plentiful energy supply is critical for our state and national economy and the national and international food supply; and

WHEREAS, current and future risks to the nation's energy security are mounting while global energy demands are growing exponentially; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's productive farms and forests can become the future sources for renewable fuels to help supply these growing energy demands; and

WHEREAS, the development of a broad spectrum of renewable energy sources, including but not limited to wind power, biodiesel, biomass, methane digesters, ethanol, and solar, would be beneficial to Missouri's farmers and rural communities by opening additional markets for agricultural commodities, increasing farm income, developing new products from livestock byproducts, improving the productive use of marginal lands, improving wildlife habitat, and creating many new job opportunities; and

WHEREAS, American agriculture is well-positioned to play an expanded role in the development and implementation of new energy solutions and, with appropriate technological innovation, incentives, and investments, America's farms and forests can become the factories that produce a new generation of fuels to help meet the nation's critical energy needs; and

WHEREAS, agriculture's and forestry's role as an energy producer will have a positive effect on national security and United States trade imbalances:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-fifth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, express our support of the "25 by 25" renewable energy initiative that America's agricultural and forestry sectors provide 25 percent of the nation's energy needs by the year 2025 while they continue to produce abundant, safe, and affordable food and fiber; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for each member of Missouri's congressional delegation, the Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the U.S. Senate, the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the U.S. House of Representatives, and President Barack Obama.
