

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 2010

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richard in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever...
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who understand,"
(Daniel 2:20.21)

Almighty God, we pray for the wisdom and knowledge to understand well the issues before us these days.

This morning, we also give thanks for the approach of Spring Break. May it be a time to reflect upon the themes of our work, a time to listen to our constituents, a time to celebrate life with our families, a 'pause that refreshes'.

We ask Your blessing upon all those for whom Spring Break is not much of a break, because they must work through most of it, or because of great burdens in their lives.

We ask for the grace eventually to return from the break with a fullness of wisdom and clarity of understanding to make correct decisions regarding the topics that will be placed before us.

We pray to You, our Lord and God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed.

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NOS. 25, 29 & 39

WHEREAS, in the American system, sovereignty is defined as final authority, and the people, not government, are sovereign; and

WHEREAS, the people of the state of Missouri are not united with the people of the other forty-nine states that comprise the United States of America on a principle of unlimited submission to their federal government; and

WHEREAS, all power not delegated by the people to government is retained; and

WHEREAS, the people of the several states comprising the United States of America created the federal government to be their agent for certain enumerated purposes only; and

WHEREAS, this resolution affirms Missouri's sovereignty under the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and demands the federal government to halt its practice of assuming powers and imposing mandates upon the state for purposes not enumerated by the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Article I, Section 1 of the Missouri Constitution states:

"That all political power is vested in and derived from the people; that all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole."; and

WHEREAS, the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States reads as follows:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."; and

WHEREAS, the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States assures that each sovereign State possesses rights the federal government may not usurp; and

WHEREAS, the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States defines the total scope of federal power as being that specifically granted by the Constitution of the United States and no more; and

WHEREAS, the First Amendment to the Constitution guarantees to "the right of the people...to petition the Government for a redress of grievances"; and

WHEREAS, today, in 2010, the states are demonstrably treated as agents of the federal government; and

WHEREAS, many federal laws are directly in violation of the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States reads that "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government" and the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States reads that "The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."; and

WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled in New York v. United States, 112 S.Ct. 2408 (1992), that Congress may not simply commandeer the legislative and regulatory processes of the states; and

WHEREAS, a number of proposals from previous administrations and some now pending from the present administration and from Congress may further violate the Constitution of the United States and the Missouri Constitution:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fifth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby claims sovereignty under the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States over all powers not otherwise enumerated and granted to the federal government by the Constitution of the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this concurrent resolution serve as Notice and Demand to the federal government, as our agent, to cease and desist, effective immediately, mandates that are beyond the scope of these constitutionally delegated powers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all compulsory federal legislation which directs states to comply under threat of civil or criminal penalties or sanctions or requires states to pass legislation or lose federal funding be prohibited or repealed; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the sovereign State of Missouri reserves the right to declare any such Act void by the Congress of the United States, Executive Order of the President of the United States of America, or Judicial Order by the Judicatories of the United States of America which assumes a power not delegated to the government of the United States of America by the Constitution of the United States of America and which serves to diminish the liberty of any of the several States or their citizens are unconstitutional under the Constitution of the United States of America by the government of the United States of America; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and President of the Senate of each state's legislature, and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Real ID and Personal Privacy, to which was referred HJR 88, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(32)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Real ID and Personal Privacy, to which was referred HB 2161, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent with House Committee Substitute, and pursuant to Rule 25(32)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on State Parks and Waterways, Chairman Pollock reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on State Parks and Waterways, to which was referred HCR 16, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(32)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.
