

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 2010

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Pratt in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

LORD, Most High, You are awesome. You are the great King of all the Earth. You reign above the nations, sitting on Your holy throne. The powers of Earth are Yours - You soar over all.

LORD God, fine-tune our ears to hear what wisdom and understanding have to say. Help us to understanding, today, that wisdom has important information for us and desires to reveal it to us. Your wisdom helps us to be more informed leaders. Create in us, by Your wisdom, a distaste for pride, arrogance, dishonesty, pretense, immorality and harmful words.

May we experience Your supernatural power to break down walls in communication, walls of bias and walls of self-righteousness. Remove any obstacle that would be a hindrance to experiencing Your glorious answer to our prayers for this legislative process.

We, again, acknowledge Your sovereignty over our time, our finances, our focus, our future and this process.

Now may You, Lord God our Father, Who loved us and by Your grace gave us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope, comfort and strengthen us in every good thing we do and say.

In the name of Your Son, I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Scott Goldman, Jac Calliot, Holly Essner, Amy Jacobsmeyer, Molly Records, Sarah Liese, Madison Evans, Abigail Fellows, Madeleine Fellows, Nolan Fellows and Madelyn Herrington.

115.291. 1. The affidavit of each person voting an absentee ballot shall be subscribed and sworn to before the election official receiving the ballot, a notary public or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths, unless the voter is voting absentee due to incapacity or confinement due to the provisions of section 115.284, illness or physical disability, or the voter is an absent uniformed services voter or an overseas voter. If the voter is blind, unable to read or write the English language, or physically incapable of voting the ballot, the voter may be assisted by a person of the voter's own choosing. Any rule promulgated pursuant to this subsection shall apply to a class or classes of voters as provided for by the secretary of state.

4. No election authority shall refuse to accept and process any otherwise valid marked absentee ballot submitted in any manner by an absent uniformed services voter or overseas voter solely on the basis of restrictions on envelope type.

5. As provided in the Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act, the secretary of state shall, in coordination with local election authorities, develop a free access system by which an absent uniformed services voter or overseas voter may determine whether the voter's absentee ballot has been received by the appropriate election authority.

115.292. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a qualified absentee voter, as described in subsection 3 of this section, may apply for a special write-in absentee ballot within eighty days of a special, primary, or general election for federal office. Such a ballot shall be for voting for all offices being contested at such election.

2. A qualified absentee voter applying for a special write-in absentee ballot pursuant to this section shall apply to the local election authority of the area which contains his last residence in this state for such ballot. The application for a special write-in absentee ballot may be made on the federal postcard application form, by letter, or on a form provided by the local election authority.

3. [In order to qualify for a special write-in absentee ballot, the voter shall state that he is unable to vote by any other means due to requirements of military service or due to living in isolated or extremely remote areas of the world. This statement may be made by federal postcard application, by letter, or on a form prepared by the local election authority.

4.] Upon receipt of the application, the election authority shall issue a special write-in absentee ballot. Such ballot shall permit the voter to cast a ballot by writing in a party preference for each office, the names of specific candidates, or the names of persons whom the voter prefers.

[5.] 4. The election authority shall issue a regular absentee ballot as soon as such ballots are available. If both the regular absentee ballot and the special write-in absentee ballot are returned, the regular absentee ballot shall be counted and the special write-in absentee ballot shall be voided.

5. The special write-in absentee ballot provided for in this section shall be used instead of the federal write-in absentee ballot in general, special, and primary elections for federal office as authorized in Title 42, U.S.C. Section 1973ff-2(e), as amended.”; and “115.079. 1. All election judges in each jurisdiction shall be appointed by the election authority. If an election authority determines that there is a shortage of election judges, then judges may be selected at random from a cross-section of the voter registrations of the population within the election authority's jurisdiction, in a manner determined by the election authority. In considering individuals for selection as election judges, the election authority shall consider factors to ensure that nondiscrimination in the representation of the community is served to the greatest extent possible, including but not limited to the individual's party affiliation, geographic location, demographics, and relevant skills and experience. The election authority may use the Missouri voter registration system implemented under this chapter to assist in appointing election judges.

2. All qualified citizens shall have the opportunity to be considered for selection. No citizen shall be excluded from selection as a result of discrimination based on the individual's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or economic status. No citizen shall be excluded from selection unless excused because of ill health or other good and sufficient reason as determined by the election authority.

3. The election authority shall notify each individual selected as an election judge by a letter mailed at least fifteen days before the required reporting date for the election.

115.085. No person shall be appointed to serve as an election judge who is not a registered voter in this state; provided that, before any election authority may appoint judges who are registered voters of another election authority's jurisdiction, the election authority shall obtain the written consent of the election authority for the jurisdiction where the prospective judges are registered to vote. Each election judge shall be a person of good repute and character who can speak, read, and write the English language. No person shall serve as an election judge at any polling place in which his or her name or the name of a relative within the second degree, by consanguinity or affinity, appears on the ballot. However, no relative of any unopposed candidate shall be disqualified from serving as an election judge in any election jurisdiction of the state. No election judge shall, during his or her term of office, hold any other elective public office, other than as a member of a political party committee or township office, except any person who is elected to a board or commission of a political subdivision or special district may serve as an election judge except at a polling place where such political subdivision or special district has an issue or candidate on the ballot. Each person selected shall, if qualified and unless excused because of ill health or other good and sufficient reason, serve for the term for which the individual was selected. In any county having a population of less than two hundred fifty thousand inhabitants, any candidate for the county committee of a political party who is not a candidate for any other office and who is unopposed for election as a member of the committee shall not be disqualified from serving as an election judge.

115.089. Each board of election commissioners shall [have authority to] appoint election judges [for individual elections, or] for a term [coincident with the term of the board and until the judges' successors are appointed and qualified] of two years, but no election judge shall be selected and appointed for service in more than five elections during the two-year term. The board may ask the county committee of each major political party to submit a list of persons qualified to serve as election judges and may select and appoint judges from the lists. The board may compile a list of persons who claim no political affiliation and who volunteer to be election judges and may select and appoint judges from the list. Election judges may be selected and appointed at least fifteen days before an election.

115.095. Each person selected and appointed as an election judge shall report to the office of the election authority or any other designated location to complete any necessary informational forms and to receive training for election judge duties at the time indicated in the notice of selection and appointment. If any judge fails to act or to appear by the time fixed by law for the opening of the polls, the election authority shall be notified immediately by an election judge. The election authority or the election judges present in the polling place shall appoint another judge from the same political party as the judge failing to act or to appear. If the election judges elect a qualified temporary judge, such judge shall have full authority to act as judge for the election, except that such judge may be removed at any time by the election authority and replaced with another qualified judge from the same political party as the removed judge. Any judge selected pursuant to this section shall be selected to ensure that no political party shall have a majority of judges at any polling place and that each major political party has at least one judge serving at the polling place.

115.102. 1. An employer shall not terminate, discipline, threaten or take adverse actions against an employee based on the employee's service as an election judge, and no person selected and appointed as an election judge shall be subjected to such actions, except that an employer may reduce the pay of an employee for each hour of work missed by an amount equal to the hourly compensation not including expenses paid to the employee for such service.

2. An employee who is appointed to serve as an election judge may, on election day, be absent from his or her employment for the period of time that the election authority requires the employee to serve as election judge. Employees must notify employers at least seven days prior to an election that they will be absent from work on election day due to service as an election judge, but such notice shall not be required for any person selected and appointed to fill a vacancy as an election judge on the day of an election. Any such person shall be excused upon request from any shift work for the hours during which the individual is required to serve and, if required to serve eight hours or more, for eight hours before and eight hours after the individual is required to serve.

3. An employee discharged in violation of this section may bring a civil action against the employer within ninety days of discharge for recovery of lost wages and other damages caused by the violation and for an order directing reinstatement of the employee. If the employee prevails, the employee shall be entitled to receive reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

4. Any person who threatens to terminate, coerces, or attempts to coerce any person in violation of this section is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Any person who terminates such person's employment, reduces such person's regular pay, overtime pay, sick leave, or vacation time, or penalizes such person in any other way for the person's service as an election judge, is guilty of a class D felony. The election authority shall submit the names of any person violating this section to the county prosecutor with jurisdiction in the election authority's jurisdiction for prosecution under this section.”; and
