

HB 2051 -- Treatment of Master's Disease

Sponsor: Deeken

Beginning January 1, 2011, this bill authorizes physicians to prescribe, administer, and dispense long-term antibiotic therapy, without a second opinion from another physician or medical specialist, for the treatment of Master's Disease or a tick-borne infection.