

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 96th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 7, 2011

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Tilley in the Chair.

Prayer by Mike Warman, StoneBridge Community Church, O'Fallon, MO.

It's a great honor for me to stand before you ladies and gentlemen this afternoon. I'd like to thank Representative Chuck Gatschenberger for inviting me today.

Two weeks ago as I was leading our people through a study in the book of Jonah, I noted God's rescuing of a great nation. It was through a simple message brought by a simple man. This message so impacted the king that he took the necessary steps to call on God and thus averted disaster for his people. The king cared for his people and his country, and I believe the same can be said of you gathered here.

I have a message from God for you today. It's simple and comes from His Word. You are loved, and you are valued for who you are, not for what you do.

Having said this though, on behalf of a church in Dardenne Prairie, Missouri, I'd like to say thank you for what you do. What happens in this hall matters greatly to those of us outside of it. Now if you'd allow me I'd like to pray for you.

Our Father, Your Word tells us to pray for kings and those in authority, that we might live quiet and peaceful lives in all godliness and holiness. We live in a time of tension and unrest, and so for the men and women gathered here I pray for You to lead them that it might go well for all of us.

I ask You by the power of Your Holy Spirit to help them work together. I pray that there may be unity in this place so that there might be harmony and peace outside of it.

I pray that You give them the wisdom needed to make good decisions. We sometimes fail to see how common sense can solve complex situations. I pray that You would give them the courage of conviction. Allow them to have honest and open dialogue over principles and not be caught up in the mindless debate over preferences.

King Solomon said a while back it's to the glory of kings to search out a matter, so Lord I pray You'd give these leaders wisdom to be thorough and fair in their deliberations. Father, I ask You to keep them from that which is evil and destructive. As they work to protect and strengthen our families, I ask that You might protect theirs at home.

Finally, Father, I would ask You to give them Your joy as they serve. Life is challenging enough without the enormous load these men and women carry. So I pray they would enjoy the work they're about to do. Father, may they encourage one another often. I ask that You would help them to always remember that, in spite of the politics, they are real people.

May You multiply the work of their hands and its positive impact on individuals and families of this great state of Missouri. Give us Your peace and help us to know the love of Jesus Christ.

In His Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed.
