

HB 169 -- Ballroom Dance Courses in Public Schools

Sponsor: Nolte

This bill allows any public school to offer one or more courses in ballroom dance. The course will be treated as a qualified fine arts and a physical education activity for academic credit and counted toward the satisfaction of any physical education or fine arts requirements of the public school and any entrance requirements of a public higher education institution.