

HB 222 -- Assessment of Certain Newly Constructed Homes

Sponsor: Schneider

This bill increases the number of years before a newly constructed residential property which has never been occupied is assessed for property taxation from the second year following the year the construction on the home was completed to the fourth year regardless of whether the county where the property is located implements the provisions of Section 137.082, RSMo.