

HB 244 -- University of Missouri Board of Curators

Sponsor: Still

Currently, the University of Missouri Board of Curators cannot have more than one person appointed from the same Congressional district. This bill revises the provision to require at least one member be from each district with no more than two appointed from the same district.