

HB 295 -- Infectious Diseases Incurred in the Line of Duty

Sponsor: Hinson

This bill specifies that any infectious disease which causes a condition of impaired health that results in a disability or death of a fire fighter in certain circumstances will be presumed to have been incurred by the fire fighter in the line of duty as it relates to a claim for disability or death or for retirement benefits.