

HB 461 -- Use of Credit History by Prospective Employers

Sponsor: Pollock

This bill prohibits an employer from using a job applicant's personal credit history as a hiring criteria except where the credit history is shown to be directly related to the position sought by the applicant. If the applicant's credit history is directly related to the position, the history cannot be the determinant factor in whether he or she is ultimately hired.