

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 96th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 19, 2012

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Tilley in the Chair.

Prayer by Major Kendall Mathews.

God, our eternal Father and our hope for tomorrow, You are the creator and preserver of all things in heaven and on earth. We approach Your throne of grace today seeking Your wisdom, guidance and blessing upon this honorable house of lawmakers. Help them to know that faith is the key to the Kingdom, which has the power to direct their decisions and to impact this great State of Missouri. "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the daughters and sons of God." (Romans 8:14)

May Your righteous and holy hand uphold these governmental officials and keep them in perfect peace, while the uncertainty of the world influences our community. Holy God, they need Your spiritual presence, Your endless power, and Your passion to be stamped upon their hearts this very moment, as they make resolutions that will affect the rich and the poor of our state. May these representatives respond to Your holy voice, so they can favorably reply to the voices of the people.

Grant these women and men, and their families, physical health, inner peace and endless mercy as they serve and preserve high governmental standards for our fellow citizens. "To give and it will be given to you; good measure passed over, they will pour into your lap. For whatever measure you deal out to others, it will be dealt to you in return." (Luke 6:38) Help them deal fairly with all people so that they can understand how You deal fairly with them, Lord.

And now unto You Who are able to do more than we can think or imagine, I pray that these officials will submit to Your authority and be led by You. May it be so in the righteous Name of our Lord, Savior and Master, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Abigail Leara, Kathleen Leara, Alexander Leara and Thomas Leara.

The Journal of the thirty-eighth day was approved as corrected.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

March 16, 2012

TO THE CHIEF CLERK OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
96TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 1219 entitled:

“AN ACT”

To repeal sections 213.010, and 213.111, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to unlawful discriminatory practices.

I disapprove of House Bill No. 1219. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Much like Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 188, which I vetoed in 2011, House Bill No. 1219 weakens Missouri’s commitment to address discriminatory conduct and limits existing protections for whistleblowers in the workplace.

The following are several of the unacceptable provisions contained in House Bill No. 1219 that collectively evince a desire to undo decades of progress in Missouri.

Eliminates individual responsibility for discrimination. House Bill No. 1219 ignores a basic tenet of the Missouri Human Rights Act in that it releases from liability the very person who committed the discriminatory act. The Missouri Human Rights Act was established to protect Missourians from such treatment by holding those who discriminate and harass accountable for their actions.

Exempts private clubs and seasonal employers from suit. House Bill No. 1219 would exempt private clubs and many seasonal employers from the type of conduct prohibited by the Missouri Human Rights Act. This Act must continue to protect against discrimination regardless of where it occurs.

Significantly reduces the availability of damages in discrimination cases. House Bill No. 1219 would establish a cap on damages in discrimination cases. And while federal law also establishes limits, the federal caps apply against the aggregate of only compensatory and punitive damages. House Bill No. 1219, meanwhile, would apply that same monetary limit to the sum of awarded “back pay, interest on back pay, other equitable relief [front pay], court costs and reasonable attorneys fees,” as well as compensatory and punitive damages. Such limits would significantly reduce the potential award in any given case and would undermine the effectiveness of the Missouri Human Rights Act.

Prevents a court from awarding any damages in housing discrimination cases. State law makes it unlawful to discriminate in housing decisions because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, disability or familial status and provides for the recovery of damages for such conduct. House Bill No. 1219, by way of Section 213.111.8, RSMo, would inexplicably eliminate a court’s ability to award damages in housing discrimination cases brought under Sections 213.040, 213.045 or 213.050, RSMo.

Prohibits punitive damages against government. House Bill No. 1219 would bar punitive damages in discrimination suits against the State or political subdivisions except in certain housing cases, effectively holding governmental entities less accountable to its citizens than their private sector counterparts. Discrimination and unfair treatment does not become more or less abhorrent based on who is doing the discriminating, and the Missouri Human Rights Act should therefore make no such distinction.

Reduces protection for Whistleblowers. House Bill No. 1219 would narrow the protections that currently exist against retaliation in the workplace. Whistleblowers provide an important service to all Missourians, and laws should not be written to discourage individuals from exposing misconduct.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 1219 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

The following member's presence was noted: Franklin.
