

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 96th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 2012

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Tilley in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

We know that in everything God works for good with those who love Him. (Romans 8:28)

Almighty God, from Whom we come, with Whom we live, and unto Whom our spirits return, may we feel the tap of Your finger upon our shoulders and the touch of Your spirit upon our hearts as we at this moment lift ourselves to You in prayer.

Always You are with us - always. Help us to become more aware of Your presence, renewing our faith in the goodness of life, restoring our spirits to the comfort of Your love, and reinvigorating our minds with fresh and positive thoughts.

We do not pray for relief from heavy responsibilities but for the gift of Your power which will help us to meet them with honor; not for fewer burdens but for greater strength to manage them with patience; not for less trouble but for more trust in You which will help us to master trouble with confidence. In all of life may we be more than conquerors through Him Who loves us.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mary Grace Campbell, Rachael Prawitz, Jacob Cogley, Sydney Nolte, Lauren Stanley and Hannah Benningfield.

The Journal of the sixty-second day was approved as printed.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1880

WHEREAS, more than a century ago, hunters, anglers, and trappers were among the first conservationists who realized America's natural resources were in peril and could not sustain unregulated harvest and habitat destruction; and

WHEREAS, hunters, anglers, and trappers took it upon themselves to support laws that stopped excessive harvest of fish and wildlife, established game and fish agencies to protect fish, wildlife, and their habitat, and support special fishing and hunting license fees to help fund the new agencies' efforts to provide for healthy natural resources for future generations; and

WHEREAS, upon realizing that license fees alone were insufficient to restore and sustain healthy fish and wildlife populations, hunters, anglers, and trappers supported excise taxes on firearms, ammunition, archery equipment, hunting equipment, and fishing equipment to raise additional funds to support restoration and enhancement efforts of the state agencies; and

WHEREAS, these efforts became known as the "Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program" that began 75 years ago with the passage of the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act in 1937, and then was bolstered with the passage of the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act in 1950, further expanded with the Wallop-Breaux amendment to the Sport Fish Restoration Act in 1984; and

WHEREAS, these federal efforts supplemented conservation efforts made by the citizens of Missouri with the adoption of Article IV, Sections 40 to 42 of the Missouri Constitution in 1936, which created the Missouri Department of Conservation; and

WHEREAS, the combined contribution of the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Programs to state fish and wildlife agencies exceeds $13 billion since 1939, the first year money was distributed to the states - more than any other single conservation effort in American history; and

WHEREAS, industry has collected the excise taxes on firearms, ammunition, archery equipment, manufactured fishing tackle, electric trolling motors, marine electronics, and motorboat fuel, and provided these funds to the states through the United States Fish and Wildlife Service; and

WHEREAS, industry has supported the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Programs and continues to exhibit a spirit of cooperation with the state fish and wildlife agencies; and

WHEREAS, this cooperative partnership between industry, hunters, anglers, trappers, boaters, recreational shooters, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service and state natural resource agencies has resulted in most successful model of fish and wildlife management in the world, restoring populations from coast to coast, Alaska and Hawaii:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-sixth General Assembly, hereby recognizes America's hunters, anglers, trappers, boaters, recreational shooters, industry, state fish and wildlife agencies, and the United States Fish and Wildlife Service for their leading role in restoring healthy populations of fish, wildlife, and other natural resources, both game and non-game, to the abundance we see today; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Missouri Department of Conservation, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and local, regional, and national media sources so that people may know and appreciate the foresight and contributions from anglers, hunters, trappers, recreational shooters, industry, state fish and wildlife agencies, and the United States Wildlife Service on behalf of our nation's natural resources.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Tourism and Natural Resources, to which was referred SS SCR 16, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(32)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 959

WHEREAS, civic prayers and national days of prayer have a long and venerable history in our constitutional republic, dating back to the First Continental Congress in 1775, which issued a proclamation setting aside a time for prayer in forming a new nation; and

WHEREAS, in 1863, Abraham Lincoln called for a day of prayer, and Franklin Roosevelt declared a national day of prayer on D-Day, June 6, 1944, the day the Allied powers crossed the English Channel and landed on the beaches of Normandy, France, beginning the liberation of Western Europe from Nazi control during World War II; and

WHEREAS, in 1952, by joint act of Congress and signed into law by Harry S. Truman, the "National Day of Prayer" was officially established as an annual event calling upon each President of the United States to set aside an appropriate day for national prayer; and

WHEREAS, on May 5, 1988, President Ronald Reagan signed a bill which passed unanimously in Congress making the first Thursday of every May the National Day of Prayer; and

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity to acknowledge our dependence on God, to give thanks for blessings received, and to request healing for wounds endured, and to ask God to guide our leaders and bring wholeness to the United States and her citizens; and

WHEREAS, the governors of all fifty states have signed proclamations encouraging all Americans to pray on the National Day of Prayer:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-sixth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, hereby recognize May 3, 2012, as the "National Day of Prayer" and encourages all citizens of the State of Missouri to join in this recognition and observance of prayer for the welfare of this state.
