

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative John McCaherty.

In 1 Kings 3, Solomon is praying to God, who has just asked him what he should give him. Solomon's answer is as relevant today as it was thousands of years ago. He said:

You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. Now, O Lord my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted. Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil...

Father, today, like Solomon so many years before, we also look for wisdom! We seek Your face, Your desire in our lives and the lives of the great people of Missouri.

We acknowledge our own shortsightedness, our sinfulness, and our own lack of understanding. We know that there is no one person here today that has all the answers, yet working together - and with Your guidance - we can and will accomplish great things. Give us the patience, the work ethic, and the wisdom we need to work together, to work for the people and not for our own reward. Help us to accomplish this not because of self, but for Your glory and honor, that Your name would be praised throughout the generations. In the name of Your Son, we pray.

And the House says "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:
