

HB 472 -- Highways and Transportation Commission

Sponsor: Rhoads

Beginning January 1, 2014, this bill increases the membership on the Highways and Transportation Commission within the Department of Transportation from six to seven. No more than four commissioners will be members of the same political party, and each commissioner appointed after the date must be from a different department geographic district.