FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Office of the Secretary of State (SOS) assume each year, a number of joint resolutions that would refer to a vote of the people a constitutional amendment and bills that would refer to a vote of the people the statutory issue in the legislation may be considered by the General Assembly.

Unless a special election is called for the purpose, Joint Resolutions proposing a constitutional amendment are submitted to a vote of the people at the next general election. Article XII section 2(b) of the Missouri Constitution authorizes the governor to order a special election for constitutional amendments referred to the people. If a special election is called to submit a Joint Resolution to a vote of the people, subsection 115.063.2 RSMo requires the state to pay the costs. The cost of the special election has been estimated to be $7.1 million based on the cost of the 2012 Presidential Preference Primary. This figure was determined through analyzing and totaling expense reports from the 2012 Presidential Preference Primary received from local election authorities.

SOS is required to pay for publishing in local newspapers the full text of each statewide ballot measure as directed by Article XII, Section 2(b) of the Missouri Constitution and sections 116.230-116.290, RSMo. SOS is provided with core funding to handle a certain amount of normal activity resulting from each year's legislative session. Funding for this item is adjusted each year depending upon the election cycle with $1.3 million historically appropriated in odd numbered fiscal years and $100,000 appropriated in even numbered fiscal years to meet these requirements. The appropriation has historically been an estimated appropriation because the final cost is dependent upon the number of ballot measures approved by the General Assembly and the initiative petitions certified for the ballot. In FY 2013, at the August and November elections, there were 5 statewide Constitutional Amendments or ballot propositions that cost $2.17 million to publish (an average of $434,000 per issue). Therefore, the SOS assumes, for the purposes of this fiscal note, that it should have the full appropriation authority it needs to meet the publishing requirements. However, because these requirements are mandatory, we reserve the right to request funding to meet the cost of our publishing requirements if the Governor and the General Assembly change the amount or eliminate the estimated nature of our appropriation.

Oversight has reflected in this fiscal note, the state potentially reimbursing local political subdivisions the cost of having this joint resolution voted on during a special election in fiscal year 2015. This reflects the decision made by the Joint Committee on Legislative Research, that the cost of the elections should be shown in the fiscal note. The next scheduled general election is in November 2014 (FY 2015). It is assumed the subject within this proposal could be on that ballot; however, it could also be on a special election called for by the Governor. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a potential election cost reimbursement to local political subdivisions in FY 2015.

Officials from the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, the Missouri Senate and the Missouri House of Representatives each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Officials from the Governor's Office assume there should be no added cost to their office as a result of this measure.

ESTIMATED NET EFFECT TO LOCAL ELECTION AUTHORITIES	$0	$0	$0

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment grants the Governor an amendatory veto power similar to the line item veto power for appropriations bills, but applying to regular statutory legislation. The amendatory veto time limitations are identical to the time limits for the exercise of a normal veto. The Governor is allowed to submit amended bills to the General Assembly for approval or rejection by a majority vote of both houses with the restriction that gubernatorial amendments may consist only of the removal of entire sections, chapters, or larger portions of bills and stylistic and title changes to accommodate the removal of the portions of bills. If the Governor does not designate a veto as an amendatory veto, it is treated as a normal veto and no further action such as an amendatory veto is allowed. The legislature may not further amend the Governor's proposed version of a bill. It may accept the changes in which case the Governor's version becomes law, reject the changes in which case the original bill becomes law, or neither accept nor reject in which case the bill does not become law because the amendatory veto acts in the same manner as a regular veto that has not been overridden.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
