

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 14, 2014

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by D. Adam Crumbliss, Chief Clerk.

O Lord our God.

Thank You for Your amazing blessings in this life. In seven days You created the heavens and earth, but in our entire lifetime we do not understand the mysteries and mystifying nature of what You achieved in even one of those days.

We are taught that hope, faith and love are the cornerstones of a fulfilled life. Too often, we are surrounded by those tragic and unfathomable circumstances that yield for us more questions than answers, but take solace in Your warmth, Your safety and Your refuge.

Lord, last week we lost one of our own. Please be with the family and loved ones of the Honorable Rory Ellinger as we all seek to better understand the need for taking him so early. Then, Lord, more of our colleagues have suffered loss.

First, Don Spencer, father of Representative Bryan Spencer has passed away. Also, the mother of our doorkeeper, Terry Surface has passed away. Finally, Maxine Smith, mother-in-law of Representative Sue Entlicher, has also passed on.

We have had many tragedies in our state since our last session day. Let us direct our thoughts and prayers to the Wittrock family and the entire community of Warrensburg as they are struggling to understand the circumstances that led Kyle Wittrock to commit suicide. Additionally, we have had a tragedy that struck our state and the Midwest region this weekend. Three lives have been taken in what appears to have been a racially and faith-based attack occurring in Kansas City. Teresa Lamanno, Reat Underwood, and his grandfather Dr. William Corporon were taken home to be with our Creator in a senseless act of violence.

Please shield us in Your love, Your hope and Your righteousness, as we all recognize the sacrifices that You made to ensure our salvation.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fiftieth day was approved as printed.

A person may, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section, use physical force upon another person when and to the extent he or she reasonably believes such force to be necessary to defend himself or herself or a third person from what he or she reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of unlawful force by such other person, unless:

(1) The actor was the initial aggressor; except that in such case his or her use of force is nevertheless justifiable provided:

(a) He or she has withdrawn from the encounter and effectively communicated such withdrawal to such other person but the latter persists in continuing the incident by the use or threatened use of unlawful force; or

(b) He or she is a law enforcement officer and as such is an aggressor [pursuant to] under section 563.046; or

(c) The aggressor is justified under some other provision of this chapter or other provision of law;

(2) Under the circumstances as the actor reasonably believes them to be, the person whom he or she seeks to protect would not be justified in using such protective force;

(3) The actor was attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of a forcible felony.

2. A person may not use deadly force upon another person under the circumstances specified in subsection 1 of this section unless:

(2) Such force is used against a person who unlawfully enters, remains after unlawfully entering, or attempts to unlawfully enter a dwelling, residence, or vehicle lawfully occupied by such person; or

(3) Such force is used against a person who unlawfully enters, remains after unlawfully entering, or attempts to unlawfully enter private property that is owned or leased by an individual, or is occupied by an individual who has been given specific authority by the property owner to occupy the property, claiming a justification of using protective force under this section.

3. A person does not have a duty to retreat from a dwelling, residence, or vehicle where the person is not unlawfully entering or unlawfully remaining. A person does not have a duty to retreat from private property that is owned or leased by such individual or if the individual has been given specific authority by the property owner to occupy the property.

4. The justification afforded by this section extends to the use of physical restraint as protective force provided that the actor takes all reasonable measures to terminate the restraint as soon as it is reasonable to do so.

5. The defendant shall have the burden of injecting the issue of justification under this section. If a defendant asserts that his or her use of force is described under subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section, the burden shall then be on the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant did not reasonably believe that the use of such force was necessary to defend against what he or she reasonably believed was the use or imminent use of unlawful force."; and
