

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2016

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

He who is of God hears the words of God. (John 8:47)

O God, Source of Mercy, whose strength supports us in our labor and whose Spirit sustains us in our work, give us a new and a fresh realization of Your presence as we wait upon You in prayer. Grant us patience when we demand too much too soon and decisions do not go our way; courage in the face of apparent defeat that we may still believe in the ultimate victory of the good for the good of all; and love when we falter in fear and fail in faithfulness that we may have the steady assurance that You are with us loving us to the very end and strengthening us for every noble endeavor.

Deliver our State from harm and strife, especially during this earthquake awareness month and lead us in the paths of peace, prosperity and safety as we leave for this weekend, for Your Name's sake.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Charlie Smith, Nora Lee Brown and Alma Lydia Munoz.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed.

SECOND READING OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following House Concurrent Resolutions were read the second time:

House Committee Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 2379, Page 1, In the Title, Line 2, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"To amend chapter 167, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to dyslexia."; and

Further amend said bill and page, Section 167.950, Lines 1 through 6, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"167.950. 1. (1) By December 31, 2017, the department of elementary and secondary education shall develop guidelines for the appropriate screening of students for dyslexia and related disorders and the necessary classroom support for students with dyslexia and related disorders. Such guidelines shall be consistent with the findings and recommendations of the task force created under section 633.420.

(2) In the 2018-19 school year and subsequent years, each public school, including each charter school, shall conduct dyslexia screenings for students. Such screenings shall be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the findings and recommendations of the task force created under section 633.420.

(3) In the 2018-19 school year and subsequent years, the school board of each district and the governing board of each charter school shall provide reasonable support for any student determined to have dyslexia or a related disorder. Such support shall be provided in a manner that is consistent with the findings and recommendations of the task force created under section 633.420.

2. In the 2018-19 school year and subsequent years, the practicing teacher assistance programs established under section 168.400 shall include two hours of in-service training provided by each local school district for all practicing teachers in such district regarding dyslexia and related disorders. Each charter school shall also offer all of its teachers two hours of training on dyslexia and related disorders. Districts and charter schools may seek assistance from the department of elementary and secondary education in developing and providing such training. Completion of such training shall count as two contact hours of professional development under section 168.021."; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 16, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"(2) "Dyslexia screening", a short test conducted by a teacher or school counselor to determine whether a student likely has dyslexia or a related disorder in which a positive result does not represent a medical diagnosis but indicates that the student could benefit from approved support;"; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 2, Line 17, by deleting the number "(2)" and inserting in lieu thereof the number "(3)"; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 19, by deleting the period, "." and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon, ";"; and

Further amend said bill, page, section, and line, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"(4) "Support", low-cost and effective best practices, such as oral examinations and extended test-taking periods, used to support students who have dyslexia or any related disorder."; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 28, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"5. Nothing in this section shall require the MO HealthNet program to expand the services that it provides.

633.420. 1. For the purposes of this section, the term "dyslexia" means a disorder that is neurological in origin, characterized by difficulties with accurate and fluent word recognition, and poor spelling and decoding abilities that typically result from a deficit in the phonological component of language, often unexpected in relation to other cognitive abilities and the provision of effective classroom instruction, and of which secondary consequences may include problems in reading comprehension and reduced reading experience that can impede growth of vocabulary and background knowledge. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a district from assessing students for dyslexia and offering students specialized reading instruction if a determination is made that a student suffers from dyslexia. Nothing in this definition shall require a student with dyslexia to obtain an individualized education program (IEP) unless the student has otherwise met the federal conditions necessary.

2. There is hereby created the "Legislative Task Force on Dyslexia". The joint committee on education shall provide technical and administrative support as required by the task force to fulfill its duties. The task force shall meet at least quarterly and may hold meetings by telephone or video conference. The task force shall advise and make recommendations to the governor, general assembly, and relevant state agencies regarding matters concerning individuals with dyslexia, including education and other adult and adolescent services.

3. The task force shall be comprised of eighteen members consisting of the following:

(1) Two members of the senate appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate, with one member appointed from the minority party and one member appointed from the majority party;

(2) Two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, with one member appointed from the minority party and one member appointed from the majority party;

(3) The commissioner of education, or his or her designee;

(4) One representative from an institution of higher education located in this state with specialized expertise in dyslexia and reading instruction;

(5) A representative from a state teachers association or the Missouri National Education Association;

(6) A representative from the International Dyslexia Association of Missouri;

(7) A representative from Decoding Dyslexia of Missouri;

(8) A representative from the Missouri Association of Elementary School Principals;

(9) A representative from the Missouri Council of Administrators of Special Education;

(10) A professional licensed in the state of Missouri with experience diagnosing dyslexia including, but not limited to, a licensed psychologist, school psychologist, or neuropsychologist;

(11) A speech-language pathologist with training and experience in early literacy development and effective research-based intervention techniques for dyslexia, including an Orton-Gillingham remediation program recommended by the Missouri Speech-Language Hearing Association, or a certified academic language therapist recommended by the Academic Language Therapists Association who is a resident of this state;

(12) A representative from an independent private provider or nonprofit organization serving individuals with dyslexia;

(13) An assistive technology specialist with expertise in accessible print materials and assistive technology used by individuals with dyslexia recommended by the Missouri assistive technology council;

(14) One private citizen who has a child who has been diagnosed with dyslexia;

(15) One private citizen who has been diagnosed with dyslexia; and

(16) A representative of the Missouri State Council of the International Reading Association.

4. The members of the task force, other than the members from the general assembly and ex officio members, shall be appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate or the speaker of the house of representatives by September 1, 2016, by alternating appointments beginning with the president pro tempore of the senate. A chairperson shall be selected by the members of the task force. Any vacancy on the task force shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Members shall serve on the task force without compensation.

5. The task force shall make recommendations for a statewide system for identification, intervention, and delivery of supports for students with dyslexia, including the development of resource materials and professional development activities. These recommendations shall be included in a report to the governor and legislature and shall include findings and proposed legislation and shall be made available no longer than twelve months from the task force's first meeting. The task force shall hold its first meeting before October 1, 2016.

6. The recommendations and resource materials developed by the task force shall:

(1) Identify valid and reliable screening and evaluation assessments and protocols that can be used and the appropriate personnel to administer such assessments in order to identify children with dyslexia or the characteristics of dyslexia as part of an ongoing reading progress monitoring system, multi-tiered system of supports, and special education eligibility determinations in schools;

(2) Recommend an evidence-based reading instruction, with consideration of the National Reading Panel Report and Orton-Gillingham methodology principles for use in all Missouri schools, and intervention system, including a list of effective dyslexia intervention programs, to address dyslexia or characteristics of dyslexia for use by schools in multi-tiered systems of support and for services as appropriate for special education eligible students;

(3) Develop and implement preservice and inservice professional development activities to address dyslexia identification and intervention, including utilization of accessible print materials and assistive technology, within degree programs such as education, reading, special education, speech-language pathology, and psychology;

(4) Review teacher certification and professional development requirements as they relate to the needs of students with dyslexia;

(5) Examine the barriers to accurate information on the prevalence of students with dyslexia across the state and recommend a process for accurate reporting of demographic data; and

(6) Study and evaluate current practices for diagnosing, treating, and educating children in this state and examine how current laws and regulations affect students with dyslexia in order to present recommendations to the governor and general assembly.

7. The task force shall hire or contract for hire specialist services to support the work of the task force as necessary with appropriations made by the general assembly for that purpose or from other available funding.

8. The task force authorized under this section shall expire on August 31, 2018."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Committee on Emerging Issues, Chairman Haahr reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Emerging Issues, to which was referred HB 1578, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass with House Committee Amendment No. 1, and pursuant to Rule 27(7) be referred to the Select Committee on General Laws.

House Committee Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1578, Page 2, Section 571.030, Line 51, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof "Current members of the National Guard who are in good standing"; and
