

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 2016

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

The Lord thy God bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest. (Deuteronomy 14:29)

O Lord, Our Ancient God, whose glory is in all the world and whose goodness shines in all that is beautiful, we commit ourselves and our State to Your merciful care: that being guided by Your spirit we may learn to dwell together in Your peace and to live by Your laws.

Grant that the work of this day may be in accordance with Your holy will. Give to us health of body, clarity of mind and strength of spirit that we may do what we need to do with all our hearts.

Deliver us from the fear and depression that destroys, from the futility and panic that deadens, and from the frustration and hatred that discourages us. May You guide us to work to make our dreams come true and to dream to make our work worth doing and living.

Keep our State strong. Let us walk, work and live together humbly in faith and freedom that Your glory shall be revealed in every effort we make to share illumination and perspective with all our citizens.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Clara Linhares, Mary Lorenz, Nolan Mahn, and Grant Thornberry.

The Journal of the fiftieth day was approved as printed.

(2) If the retail sale is not effected in person at the telecommunications company's location, by the municipality within whose limits the customer's residence or, for nonresidential customers, the principal place of operations lies, as obtained during the consummation of the sale, and as may be indicated by the address of the customer's payment instrument; or

(3) If the retail sale is not effected in person by the customer at the business location of the telecommunications company and an address cannot be obtained during the consummation of the sale or is otherwise not available, then the sale shall be subject to such tax by attributing the sale to a location determined in a reasonable manner that is supported by the telecommunications company's books and records. A method that attributes the total of all such sales with respect to each area code to municipalities in proportion to the telecommunications company's total sales of prepaid wireless telecommunications service within the area code shall be deemed reasonable. If a telecommunications company attributes the sale as described under this subdivision, it shall provide a description of such attribution to impacted municipalities at the time that such taxes are paid.

3. If the telecommunications company's reliance on the information provided is in good faith, a municipality shall not hold the telecommunications company liable for any additional taxes, charges, or fees based on a different determination.

4. Any telecommunications company may recover from its customers through a line item charge, or otherwise, all or part of the business license tax, including an additional convenience fee of up to three percent of the business license tax applicable to the transaction.

"92.096. 1. Sections 92.096 to 92.102 shall be known and may be cited as the "Prepaid Wireless Telecommunications Business License Tax Act".

2. As used in sections 92.096 to 92.102, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms mean:

(1) "Business license tax", any tax, including any fee, charge, or assessment in the nature of a tax, assessed by a municipality on a telecommunications company for the privilege of doing business within the borders of such municipality, and specifically includes any tax assessed on a telecommunications company by a municipality under sections 66.300 and 80.090; under section 92.045, 92.073, 94.110, 94.270, or 94.360; or under authority granted in its charter, as well as an occupation license tax, gross receipts tax, franchise tax, or similar tax, but shall not include:

(a) Any state or municipal sales or use tax imposed under sections 32.085 and 32.087 or under sections 144.010 to 144.525;

(b) Any municipal right-of-way usage fee imposed under the authority of a municipality's police powers under section 253(c) of the federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (47 U.S.C. Section 253(c)), as amended, or under sections 67.1830 to 67.1846;

(c) Any tax or fee levied for emergency services under section 190.292, 190.305, 190.325, 190.335, or 190.430, or any tax authorized by the general assembly on or after the effective date of this section for emergency services; or

(d) Any flat tax duly imposed;

(2) "Gross receipts", receipts from the sale of prepaid wireless telecommunications service;

(3) "Municipal", of or relating to a municipality;

(4) "Municipality", any city, county, town, or village in Missouri entitled by authority of section 66.300, 80.090, 92.045, 92.073, 94.110, 94.270, or 94.360, or under authority granted in its charter to assess a business license tax on telecommunications companies;

(5) "Prepaid wireless telecommunications service", a wireless telecommunications service that is paid for in advance and is sold in predetermined units or dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount or expiration of time;

(6) "Retail sale", the sale of wireless telecommunications service by a telecommunications company for use or consumption and not for resale;

(7) "Telecommunications company", any company doing business in this state that provides wireless telecommunications service, whether a facilities-based carrier or reseller. For purposes only of sections 92.096 to 92.102, the term "telecommunications company" shall include a third-party retailer of a provider's wireless telecommunications service. To the extent a company that would otherwise qualify as a telecommunications company makes a sale of prepaid wireless telecommunications services that is for resale, the company is not considered a telecommunications company for purposes of sections 92.096 to 92.102 and is not responsible for the business license tax on those sales for resale;

(8) "Telecommunications service", the same meaning as such term is defined under subdivision (14) of subsection 1 of section 144.010;

(9) "Wireless telecommunications service", telecommunications service that is commercial mobile radio service, as such term is defined in 47 CFR 20.3, as amended. The term "exchange telephone service", as used in section 66.300, shall include wireless telecommunications service. The terms "telecommunications service", "telephone service", or "exchange telephone service", or similar terms, in any section or ordinance relating to a business license tax shall include wireless telecommunications service.

92.098. Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter or chapter 66, 80, or 94, or the provisions of any municipal charter, after the effective date of this section, no municipality shall impose any business license tax on the gross receipts of a telecommunications company derived from the business of providing prepaid wireless telecommunications service, except as specified under sections 92.096 to 92.102. Sections 92.096 to 92.102 shall not apply to business license taxes on gross receipts other than gross receipts derived from prepaid wireless telecommunications service."; and

House Committee Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Bill No. 1814, Page 2, Section 92.098, Line 7, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"92.099. 1. As used in this section, the term "authorized depository" means an entity which is a wholly owned instrumentality of member municipalities, such as the Missouri Municipal League.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a payment in lieu of any business license tax described under sections 92.096 to 92.102 may, at the option of the telecommunications company remitting the business license tax, be remitted directly to the requisite municipality, or to the authorized depository. Such payment in lieu of a tax shall consist of ten percent of gross receipts derived from the business of providing prepaid wireless telecommunications service as determined under section 92.102 during each calendar year commencing with the effective date of this act. A sworn statement showing such gross receipts shall be filed within thirty days after the close of the preceding calendar year, and such payment in lieu of a tax shall be remitted at the time of filing. If a telecommunications company elects to remit such payment in lieu of a tax directly to less than all requisite municipalities, it shall list in such sworn statement the municipalities it remitted such payment in lieu of a tax to directly.

3. All such payments in lieu of a tax collected by the authorized depository, less one percent for the cost of collection, shall be deposited in a special trust fund in a banking institution acting as a legal depository of public funds under the statutes of Missouri and shall be secured by the deposit of securities of the character prescribed by section 30.270, RSMo, for the security of funds deposited by the state treasurer. The moneys in the special trust fund shall not be deemed funds of the authorized depository and shall not be commingled with any funds of the authorized depository. The authorized depository shall not be responsible for any loss of the funds through the negligence or failure of any banking institution acting as a legal depository of public funds.

4. The authorized depository shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the special trust fund, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of municipalities and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the authorized depository shall distribute all moneys deposited in the special trust fund during the preceding month, to the municipal treasurer, or such other officer as may be designated by municipal ordinance, of each municipality imposing such business license tax, the sum due the municipality. All interest, if any, on the moneys deposited in the special trust fund shall go to the authorized depository for the cost of collection.

5. The authorized depository may make refunds from the amounts in the special trust fund and credited to any municipality for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such municipalities. If any municipality abolishes such business license tax, the municipality shall notify the authorized depository of the action as soon as practicable but not more than thirty days after the effective date of the repeal.

6. The executive director of the authorized depository and any assistants and employees who have any duties or responsibilities in connection with the collection, deposit, transfer, transmittal, disbursement, safekeeping, accounting, or recording of funds which come into their hands under the provisions of this act shall enter into a surety bond or bonds with a surety company in the aggregate amount of not less than five hundred thousand dollars payable to any and all taxing municipalities in whose behalf the funds have been collected, conditioned on the faithful performance of its duties under this section and the satisfactory accounting of all moneys received by them. The authorized depository may enter into a blanket bond in such amount covering the executive director and all such assistants and employees. The cost of any premium for such bonds shall be paid by the authorized depository from the share of the collections under this act retained by the authorized depository for its collection cost.

7. If the authorized depository is unable or unwilling to perform its duties or responsibilities under this section, it shall notify the director of revenue at least ninety days prior to ceasing to serve as the authorized depository and the director of revenue shall collect and distribute in the same manner such payment in lieu of any business license tax that is not remitted directly to the requisite municipality. "; and
