

HB 1974 -- DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF MARIJUANA

SPONSOR: Kelley

This bills specifies that there is permissible inference that a person is driving under the influence of marijuana if, after an analysis of the person's blood, the blood contains 5 nanograms or more of delta 9-tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) per milliliter. This must not be deemed to imply that possession or use of marijuana is legal in this state.