

HB 2223 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Swan

This bill allows, but does not require, the Missouri Ethics Commission to act upon and investigate anonymous complaints of violations of ethics rules and laws. The commission has discretion whether or not to investigate possible breaches of law or policy over which it has jurisdiction based on the information provided and the content and resolution of anonymous complaints will not be a public record.