Offered By AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 334, Page 30, Section 650.340, Line 30, by inserting immediately after all of said line and section the following: "650.550. 1. There is hereby established the "Missouri Innocence Commission". Member of the Missouri innocence commission shall consist of the following: (1) The Missouri attorney general or his or her designee; (2) The president of the Missouri of Defense lawyers or his or her designee; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes.	House	Amendment NO.
 by inserting immediately after all of said line and section the following: "650.550. 1. There is hereby established the "Missouri Innocence Commission". Member of the Missouri innocence commission shall consist of the following: (1) The Missouri attorney general or his or her designee; (2) The president of the Missouri Organization of Defense lawyers or his or her designee who shall have at a minimum twenty years of trial or appellate experience in criminal defense; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official dutics. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons		Offered By
of the Missouri innocence commission shall consist of the following: (1) The Missouri attorney general or his or her designee; (2) The president of the Missouri Organization of Defense lawyers or his or her designee; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 			30, of the Missouri innocence commission shall consist of the following: (1) The Missouri attorney general or his or her designee; (2) The president of the Missouri Organization of Defense lawyers or his or her designee; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 	"650 550 1 The	e is hereby established the "Missouri Innocence Commission" Mem	hers
 (1) The Missouri attorney general or his or her designee; (2) The president of the Missouri Organization of Defense lawyers or his or her designee who shall have at a minimum twenty years of trial or appellate experience in criminal defense; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. (3) The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropria			0010
 (2) The president of the Missouri Organization of Defense lawyers or his or her designee who shall have at a minimum twenty years of trial or appellate experience in criminal defense; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		`
 who shall have at a minimum twenty years of trial or appellate experience in criminal defense; (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 			ee
 (3) The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol or his or her designee; (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 	· · · · ·
 (4) Two jail or department of corrections staff members acting as counselors who are appointed by the governor; (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation
 (5) A correctional caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation appointed by the director of the Missouri department of corrections; (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 	appointed by the governor
 (6) A prosecutor designated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 	(5) A correctional	caseworker or a chaplain involved with individual prisoners who is
Attorneys; (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation	appointed by the director	f the Missouri department of corrections;
 (7) A forensic scientist experienced in the management and oversight of laboratory operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 	(6) A prosecutor of	esignated by the president of the Missouri Association of Prosecuting	g operations who is appointed by the governor; (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation
 (8) A retired justice of the Missouri supreme court or a retired judge of the Missouri court of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation of appeals who is appointed by the governor; and (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation
 (9) Two members of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by the governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. The Missouri innocence commission shall: Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 			urt governor. Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. The Missouri innocence commission shall: Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation
 Each member shall serve for a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed. Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. The Missouri innocence commission shall: Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		of the community or a civil rights organization who are appointed by	the the expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation
 Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. The Missouri innocence commission shall:	governor.
 Members of the Missouri innocence commission shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the members' official duties. The Missouri innocence commission shall:	F 1 1 1 1
 2. The Missouri innocence commission shall: (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 			ry
 (1) Analyze the circumstances of innocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted, and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 	- and incarcerated; (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 			4
 (2) Advise the legislature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrongful convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and othe processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		cumstances of mnocent persons being charged, prosecuted, convicted	u,
 convictions; (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		slature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrong	-ful
 (3) Consider and recommend reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and other processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		stature concerning the causes and factors associated with such wrong	siui
processes; and (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation		ecommend reforms to any investigative prosecutorial judicial and o	othei
 (4) Propose remedial legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation 		sommena reforms to any investigative, prosecutorial, judicial, and t
persons are convicted of crimes. 3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation		al legislation with the goals of reducing the likelihood that innocent
3. The commission shall evaluate current practices and make appropriate recommendation	· · · · ·
	1		ions

Action Taken_____

_ Date _____

1	(1) Post-conviction access to the evaluation of DNA and other forensic evidence;
2	(2) Eyewitness identification processes;
3	(3) Videotaping custodial and other questioning of suspects and witnesses;
4	(4) Use of informants', cooperating individuals', and inmates' testimony;
5	(5) Use of witnesses with questionable credibility;
6	(6) Timely and full compliance with the state's responsibility to make exculpatory
7	information available to a defendant and his or her counsel;
8	(7) Law enforcement training and education programming;
9	(8) Independent, impartial, and scientifically reliable forensic laboratory operations;
10	(9) Payment of counsel for the defense, for investigative services, and other trial costs;
11	(10) Any other factors or areas that may be brought to the attention of the Missouri
12	innocence commission that relates to the concern of the wrongful convictions of innocent persons;
13	and
14	(11) Oversight and disciplinary structures for evaluating allegations of police, prosecutorial,
15	defense, and judicial misconduct in criminal proceedings."; and
16
17	Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
18	accordingly

18 accordingly.