

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 112

99TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE MCCAHERTY.

0128H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 452.375, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to custody of in vitro human embryos.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 452.375, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 452.375, to read as follows:

452.375. 1. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Custody" means joint legal custody, sole legal custody, joint physical custody or sole physical custody or any combination thereof;

(2) “In vitro human embryo” means any human embryo at any stage of development which is not conceived within a female;

(3) "Joint legal custody" means that the parents share the decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority relating to the health, education and welfare of the child, and, unless allocated, apportioned, or decreed, the parents shall confer with one another in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority;

~~(3)~~ (4) "Joint physical custody" means an order awarding each of the parents significant, but not necessarily equal, periods of time during which a child resides with or is under the care and supervision of each of the parents. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a way as to assure the child of frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents;

~~(4)~~ (5) “Surrogate” means a woman who is not an ovum donor but in whose womb an in vitro human embryo is implanted;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

17 (6) "Third-party custody" means a third party designated as a legal and physical 18 custodian pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 5 of this section.

19 2. The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child.
20 When the parties have not reached an agreement on all issues related to custody, the court shall 21 consider all relevant factors and enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law, including, 22 but not limited to, the following:

23 (1) The wishes of the child's parents as to custody and the proposed parenting plan 24 submitted by both parties;

25 (2) The needs of the child for a frequent, continuing and meaningful relationship with 26 both parents and the ability and willingness of parents to actively perform their functions as 27 mother and father for the needs of the child;

28 (3) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with parents, siblings, and any other 29 person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

30 (4) Which parent is more likely to allow the child frequent, continuing and meaningful 31 contact with the other parent;

32 (5) The child's adjustment to the child's home, school, and community;

33 (6) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved, including any history of 34 abuse of any individuals involved. If the court finds that a pattern of domestic violence as 35 defined in section 455.010 has occurred, and, if the court also finds that awarding custody to the 36 abusive parent is in the best interest of the child, then the court shall enter written findings of fact 37 and conclusions of law. Custody and visitation rights shall be ordered in a manner that best 38 protects the child and any other child or children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation 39 rights, and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic 40 violence from any further harm;

41 (7) The intention of either parent to relocate the principal residence of the child; and 42 (8) The wishes of a child as to the child's custodian. The fact that a parent sends his or 43 her child or children to a home school, as defined in section 167.031, shall not be the sole factor 44 that a court considers in determining custody of such child or children.

45 3. (1) In any court proceedings relating to custody of a child, the court shall not award 46 custody or unsupervised visitation of a child to a parent if such parent or any person residing with 47 such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any of the following offenses when a child 48 was the victim:

49 (a) A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.031, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 50 566.067, 566.068, 566.061, 566.083, 566.101, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 51 566.209, 566.211, or 566.215;

52 (b) A violation of section 568.020;

53 (c) A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;

54 (d) A violation of section 568.065;

55 (e) A violation of section 573.200;

56 (f) A violation of section 573.205; or 57 (g) A violation of section 568.175.

58 (2) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in 59 subdivision (1) of this subsection or for a violation of an offense committed in another state 60 when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in 61 Missouri, the court may exercise its discretion in awarding custody or visitation of a child to a 62 parent if such parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled 63 guilty to, any such offense.

64 4. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that 65 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated 66 or dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child, except for cases where the court 67 specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child, and that it is the public 68 policy of this state to encourage parents to participate in decisions affecting the health, education 69 and welfare of their children, and to resolve disputes involving their children amicably through 70 alternative dispute resolution. In order to effectuate these policies, the court shall determine the 71 custody arrangement which will best assure both parents participate in such decisions and have 72 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with their children so long as it is in the best 73 interests of the child.

74 5. Prior to awarding the appropriate custody arrangement in the best interest of the child, 75 the court shall consider each of the following as follows:

76 (1) Joint physical and joint legal custody to both parents, which shall not be denied 77 solely for the reason that one parent opposes a joint physical and joint legal custody award. The 78 residence of one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and 79 educational purposes;

80 (2) Joint physical custody with one party granted sole legal custody. The residence of one 81 of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational 82 purposes;

83 (3) Joint legal custody with one party granted sole physical custody;

84 (4) Sole custody to either parent; or

85 (5) Third-party custody or visitation:

86 (a) When the court finds that each parent is unfit, unsuitable, or unable to be a custodian, 87 or the welfare of the child requires, and it is in the best interests of the child, then custody, 88 temporary custody or visitation may be awarded to any other person or persons deemed by the 89 court to be suitable and able to provide an adequate and stable environment for the child. Before 90 the court awards custody, temporary custody or visitation to a third person under this 91 subdivision, the court shall make that person a party to the action;

92 (b) Under the provisions of this subsection, any person may petition the court to 93 intervene as a party in interest at any time as provided by supreme court rule.

94 6. If the parties have not agreed to a custodial arrangement, or the court determines such 95 arrangement is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall include a written finding in the 96 judgment or order based on the public policy in subsection 4 of this section and each of the 97 factors listed in subdivisions (1) to (8) of subsection 2 of this section detailing the specific 98 relevant factors that made a particular arrangement in the best interest of the child. If a proposed 99 custodial arrangement is rejected by the court, the court shall include a written finding in the 100 judgment or order detailing the specific relevant factors resulting in the rejection of such 101 arrangement.

102 7. Upon a finding by the court that either parent has refused to exchange information 103 with the other parent, which shall include but not be limited to information concerning the 104 health, education and welfare of the child, the court shall order the parent to comply immediately 105 and to pay the prevailing party a sum equal to the prevailing party's cost associated with 106 obtaining the requested information, which shall include but not be limited to reasonable 107 attorney's fees and court costs.

108 8. As between the parents of a child, no preference may be given to either parent in the 109 awarding of custody because of that parent's age, sex, or financial status, nor because of the age 110 or sex of the child. The court shall not presume that a parent, solely because of his or her sex, 111 is more qualified than the other parent to act as a joint or sole legal or physical custodian for the 112 child.

113 9. Any judgment providing for custody shall include a specific written parenting plan 114 setting forth the terms of such parenting plan arrangements specified in subsection 8 of section 115 452.310. Such plan may be a parenting plan submitted by the parties pursuant to section 452.310 116 or, in the absence thereof, a plan determined by the court, but in all cases, the custody plan 117 approved and ordered by the court shall be in the court's discretion and shall be in the best 118 interest of the child.

119 10. After August 28, 2016, every court order establishing or modifying custody or 120 visitation shall include the following language: "In the event of noncompliance with this order, 121 the aggrieved party may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation, or third-party 122 custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved 123 person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a 124 violation of the custody provisions of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation, or judgment

125 of paternity. The circuit clerk will provide the aggrieved party with an explanation of the 126 procedures for filing a family access motion and a simple form for use in filing the family access 127 motion. A family access motion does not require the assistance of legal counsel to prepare and 128 file."

129 11. No court shall adopt any local rule, form, or practice requiring a standardized or 130 default parenting plan for interim, temporary, or permanent orders or judgments.
131 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a court may enter an interim order 132 in a proceeding under this chapter, provided that the interim order shall not contain any 133 provisions about child custody or a parenting schedule or plan without first providing the parties 134 with notice and a hearing, unless the parties otherwise agree.

135 12. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or visitation 136 rights under section 452.400, both parents shall have access to records and information 137 pertaining to a minor child including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and school records. If 138 the parent without custody has been granted restricted or supervised visitation because the court 139 has found that the parent with custody or any child has been the victim of domestic violence, as 140 defined in section 455.010, by the parent without custody, the court may order that the reports 141 and records made available pursuant to this subsection not include the address of the parent with 142 custody or the child. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or 143 visitation rights under section 452.400, any judgment of dissolution or other applicable court 144 order shall specifically allow both parents access to such records and reports.

145 13. Except as otherwise precluded by state or federal law, if any individual, professional, 146 public or private institution or organization denies access or fails to provide or disclose any and 147 all records and information, including, but not limited to, past and present dental, medical and 148 school records pertaining to a minor child, to either parent upon the written request of such 149 parent, the court shall, upon its finding that the individual, professional, public or private 150 institution or organization denied such request without good cause, order that party to comply 151 immediately with such request and to pay to the prevailing party all costs incurred, including, but 152 not limited to, attorney's fees and court costs associated with obtaining the requested information.

153 14. An award of joint custody does not preclude an award of child support pursuant to 154 section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules. The court shall consider the factors 155 contained in section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules in determining an amount 156 reasonable or necessary for the support of the child.

157 15. If the court finds that domestic violence or abuse as defined in section 455.010 has 158 occurred, the court shall make specific findings of fact to show that the custody or visitation 159 arrangement ordered by the court best protects the child and the parent or other family or 160 household member who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in section 455.010, and 161 any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

162 16. If a dispute is brought before a court of this state involving the custody of an 163 in vitro human embryo, the court shall render a decision according to the following 164 standards:

165 (1) The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interest of the in 166 vitro human embryo. It is presumed that it is in the best interest of the in vitro human 167 embryo to place him or her in the custody of the ovum donor or spermatozoon donor who 168 intends to develop the in vitro human embryo to birth, subject to rebuttal evidence;

169 (2) The court shall resolve the dispute between the parties in the manner that 170 provides the best chance for the in vitro human embryo to develop and grow;

171 (3) The following persons have standing to petition the court or to intervene in a 172 case: the ovum donor, spermatozoon donor, or the surrogate, who shall have limited 173 standing for only those embryos that have been previously placed inside the womb of the 174 surrogate;

175 (4) The court may uphold an agreement between the parties to an action 176 establishing or terminating parental rights as not against public policy; and

177 (5) All agreements brought before the court concerning the disposition of in vitro 178 human embryos shall be subject to the provisions of this section.
