Newly Elected State Representative John Simmons Assigned to Key Leadership Roles on House Committees for 103rd General Assembly

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. – State Representative John Simmons is proud to announce his newly appointed committee assignments for this legislative session, as designated by House Speaker Jonathan Patterson. Rep. Simmons will serve on four key House committees: Elections, General Laws, Utilities (as Vice Chair), and the Special Committee on Tax Policy (as Vice Chair).

“I’m honored to be appointed to serve on these House committees by Speaker Patterson,” stated Simmons, R-Washington. Simmons was elected to his first two-year term in November 2018, serving two successive terms. After a brief hiatus, he returned to the House in November 2024 to begin his third term.

Simmons elaborated on his newly appointed assignments, “I’m returning to the familiar Elections Committee, where additional election law measures are necessary to preserve the integrity of our Republic. I’m also rejoining the vital Utilities Committee as Vice Chair, where ensuring our state utilities’ protection, expansion, and reliability is crucial to meeting the basic needs of our constituents and businesses. I’m excited to join the General Laws Committee, where key legislation often originates. Lastly, I am thrilled to serve as Vice Chair of the Special Committee on Tax Policy. I expect to see significant legislation, especially with most of the legislature and Governor Kehoe advocating to eliminate the state income tax.”

These committees play critical roles in shaping the state’s policies on election integrity, utility infrastructure, general legislative matters, and tax reform. Simmons’ assignments reflect his passion for helping Missouri advance and create meaningful policy changes for the benefit of every Missourian.
