State Rep. Dane Diehl Appointed Chair of House Committee on Insurance for the 103rd General Assembly

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. – State Representative Dane Diehl, serving Missouri's 125th District, has been appointed by House Speaker Jonathan (Jon) Patterson as Chairman of the House Committee on Insurance.

Diehl, R-Butler, expressed his gratitude for the opportunity to serve, stating, "I am honored to be selected by Speaker Patterson as Chair of the House Committee on Insurance. House Committees are the first step in refining legislation to help make life safer, better, and more affordable for Missouri families."

The House Committee on Insurance is tasked with considering and reporting on bills and matters related to insurance, insurance companies, and the Department of Commerce and Insurance. The committee plays a vital role in shaping policy that impacts the financial security and well-being of Missourians.

This legislative session, Diehl looks forward to working alongside his colleagues to create and advance legislation addressing key issues that will support the needs of Missouri families and businesses.

*Representative Dane Diehl, a Republican, represents Bates, Vernon, and Cedar Counties (District 125) in the Missouri House of Representatives. He was elected to his first term in November of 2022.
