State Rep. Brad Christ Receives Committee Assignments for the 103rd General Assembly

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. – State Rep. Brad Christ is honored to announce his newly appointed committee assignments for the legislative session, as selected by House Speaker Jonathan Patterson. Rep. Christ is to serve as Chair of the Emerging Issues Committee and will also serve as a member of the Rules Committee and the Special Committee on Tax Policy.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to take on these important roles,” said Christ, R-St. Louis. “These assignments will provide a chance to make very real impacts on issues that matter to the people of my district and to our state. I am happy to have the support of Speaker Patterson.”

As Chair of the Emerging Issues Committee, Christ will lead discussions and decisions on a wide variety of issues referred to the committee. This position allows for flexibility in addressing topics that could have a significant impact on Missouri’s future. His role on the Rules Committee ensures he will help oversee the review and advancement of critical legislation, while his work on the Special Committee on Tax Policy will focus on shaping fair and effective tax policies that promote economic growth and benefit hardworking Missourians.

As the legislative session kicks off, Christ is eager to get to work for his constituents and state. “My priority is always to serve the best interests of my constituents, and these assignments will allow me to do just that,” Christ, R-St. Louis, added. “I’m looking forward to working with my colleagues to tackle challenges and opportunities ahead.”

Looking to the months ahead, Christ hopes to deliver results that enhance the lives of all Missourians, making their voices heard in Jefferson City.

Representative Brad Christ, a Republican, represents part of St. Louis County (District 96) in the Missouri House of Representatives. He was elected to his first two-year term in November 2022. For more information, you may contact Rep. Christ at 573-751-2150 or email Brad.Christ@house.mo.gov
