State Representative Brian Seitz Named to Missouri Tourism Commission: Ready to Shine a Spotlight on the State of Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. – State Representative Brian Seitz has been appointed to the Missouri Tourism Commission by Speaker of the House Jonathan Patterson. Representing the 156th District, which encompasses Branson and the entire lakes region, Rep. Seitz brings extensive experience and a deep passion for the area's natural beauty, attractions, and economic growth to the forefront of a statewide platform.

"I am honored to have been entrusted by Speaker Patterson to fill this important vacancy on the Missouri Tourism Commission," declared Seitz, R-Branson. "Having chaired the House Tourism Committee for two terms, I feel that I am uniquely qualified to expand the level of expertise on the commission. I look forward to increasing the economic benefit that tourism has for our state."

The Missouri Tourism Commission has a vital role in promoting the state as a premier travel destination, driving economic growth and job creation. Rep. Seitz is poised to make a big impact. His appointment is expected to further strengthen the commission's efforts to showcase Missouri's charm, diverse attractions, and natural beauty.

Rep. Brian Seitz, a Republican, represents Taney County (District 156) in the Missouri House of Representatives. Rep. Seitz was elected in November 2020. For more information, please contact Rep. Seitz at 573-751-1309 or by email at Brian.Seitz@house.mo.gov.
