

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTIETH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 23, 2001

Speaker Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, another week is here, and as this session of our House of Representatives speeds too quickly towards its closing days, a moment for us all to prioritize again may well be in our best interest. Help to dispose our minds again to those notions and views which will make a difference in people's lives.

Arrange our hearts once more toward those perspectives which will bond us for the better in the ways we relate with each other. Order our souls again into that sacred space which can only lead to the good, the true, the beautiful. In the best traditions of this Chamber, spur our House on to reach for justice and decency. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Bailey Gruben and Alisha Mehrhoff.

The Journal of the fifty-ninth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Bill No. 678, Page 27, Section 130.031, Lines 123 to 134, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"10. Any individual, on his or her own or who represents any business or committee, who purchases advertising in any publication or who purchases from a broadcast station radio or television advertisements relative to any candidate for public office that are to be printed or broadcast within thirty days of a primary or general election shall sign a form to be prepared by the Missouri ethics commission. The form shall request the following information:

- (1) The publication or broadcast station and its location;
- (2) The date the purchase was made;
- (3) The times the contract for the advertising or broadcast will start and end;
- (4) The name and address of the person purchasing the advertisement or broadcast time;
- (5) On whose behalf it is being purchased. If the purchase is on another's behalf the form will ask if that entity is a corporation, committee, association, sole proprietorship or other incorporated group. The name and office location of the chief executive officer of the entity shall be listed and the date established or formed shall also be listed; and

(6) The amount of the purchase for the advertisement or broadcast.

The publication or broadcaster shall deliver, mail or send by facsimile a copy of the signed form to the Missouri ethics commission within twenty-four hours of the initial publication of the advertisement or broadcast. The Missouri ethics commission shall make such form available to the person or entity who will publish the advertisement or broadcast. Such form shall also be subject to chapter 610, RSMo. This provision does not apply to candidates or party committees.

11. Any individual publishing any printed matter relative to any candidate for public office or any ballot measure shall file with the Missouri ethics commission a copy of such printed matter. This copy shall include a list of all places of publication. This printed matter shall be subject to chapter 610, RSMo.

12. Any individual who purchases from a broadcast station radio or television advertisements relative to any candidate for public office, in addition to the requirement described in subsection 11 of this section, shall give written notice to the candidate of such publication. A copy of this notice shall be filed with the Missouri ethics commission.

13. Any individual who purchases time from a broadcast station for radio or television advertisements relative to any candidate for public office shall send to the Missouri ethics commission a written transcript of such matter. This transcript shall be a complete copy of the matter and shall contain a list of all places the matter was broadcast. This transcript shall be subject to chapter 610, RSMo.

14. In addition to subsections 10 to 13 of this section, any individual not associated with a candidate committee who purchases time from a broadcast station for radio or television advertisements relative to any candidate for public office shall give written notice to the candidate of such broadcast and shall give a written transcript of such matter to the candidate. A copy of this notice shall be sent to the Missouri ethics commission.

15. Any individual who fails to notify the Missouri ethics commission as described in subsections 10 to 14 of this section may be liable to the state for civil penalties equal to the amount paid for the published or broadcast matter. This provision does not apply to broadcast stations or publishers.

[10.] 16. The provisions of [subsection] subsections 8 [or 9] to 15 of this section shall not apply to candidates for elective federal office, provided that persons causing matter to be printed or broadcast concerning such candidacies shall comply with the requirements of federal law for identification of the sponsor or sponsors.

[11.] 17. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any person required to be identified as paying for printed matter pursuant to subsection 8 of this section [or], identified as paying for broadcast matter pursuant to subsection 9 of this section or identified as being required to file any of the disclosures required pursuant to subsections 10 to 14 of this section to refuse to provide the information required or to purposely provide false, misleading, or incomplete information.

[12.] 18. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any committee to offer chances to win prizes or money to persons to encourage such persons to endorse, send election material by mail, deliver election material in person or contact persons at their homes; except that, the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit hiring and paying a campaign staff.

19. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to this section shall take effect unless such rule has been promulgated pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Seigfreid raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 4 amends previously amended material.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Villa assumed the Chair.

Speaker Kreider resumed the Chair.

Representative Abel moved that House Amendment No. 4 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

Representative Scott offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Bill No. 678, Section 130.021, Page 24, Line 128, by inserting the following after all of said line:

“130.026. 1. For the purpose of this section, the term "election authority" or "local election authority" means the county clerk, except that in a city or county having a board of election commissioners the board of election commissioners shall be the election authority. For any political subdivision or other district which is situated within the jurisdiction of more than one election authority, as defined herein, the election authority is the one in whose jurisdiction the candidate resides or, in the case of ballot measures, the one in whose jurisdiction the most populous portion of the political subdivision or district for which an election is held is situated, except that a county clerk or a county board of election commissioners shall be the election authority for all candidates for elective county offices other than county clerk and for any countywide ballot measures.

2. The appropriate officer or officers for candidates and ballot measures shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of candidates for the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, judges of the supreme court and appellate court judges, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, in the case of candidates for the offices of state senator, state representative, county clerk, and associate circuit court judges and circuit court judges, the appropriate officers shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for the place of residence of the candidate.

In the case of candidates for the offices of officers of the general assembly, the appropriate officers shall be the Missouri ethics commission.

(3) In the case of candidates for elective municipal offices in municipalities of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants and elective county offices in counties of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, the appropriate officers shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority of the municipality or county in which the candidate seeks office;

(4) In the case of all other offices, the appropriate officer shall be the election authority of the district or political subdivision for which the candidate seeks office;

(5) In the case of ballot measures, the appropriate officer or officers shall be:

(a) The Missouri ethics commission for a statewide measure;

(b) The local election authority for any political subdivision or district as determined by the provisions of subsection 1 of this section for any measure, other than a statewide measure, to be voted on in that political subdivision or district.

3. The appropriate officer or officers for candidate committees and campaign committees shall be the same as designated in subsection 2 of this section for the candidates or ballot measures supported or opposed as indicated in the statement of organization required to be filed by any such committee.

4. The appropriate officer for political party committees shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of state party committees, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission;

(2) In the case of any district, county or city political party committee, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for that district, county or city.

5. The appropriate officers for a continuing committee and for any other committee not named in subsections 3, 4 and 5 of this section shall be as follows:

(1) The Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for the county in which the committee is domiciled; and

(2) If the committee makes or anticipates making expenditures other than direct contributions which aggregate more than five hundred dollars to support or oppose one or more candidates or ballot measures in the same political subdivision or district for which the appropriate officer is an election authority other than the one for the county in which the committee is domiciled, the appropriate officers for that committee shall include such other election authority or authorities, except that committees covered by this subsection need not file statements required by section 130.021 and reports required by subsections 6, 7 and 8 of section 130.046 with any appropriate officer other than those set forth in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

6. The term "domicile" or "domiciled" means the address of the committee listed on the statement of organization required to be filed by that committee in accordance with the provisions of section 130.021.”; and Further amend the title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Scott, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Bray offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Bill No. 678, Page 27, Section 130.031, Line 134, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“130.032. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed pursuant to section 130.031, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any person other than the candidate in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, one thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five hundred dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two hundred fifty dollars;

(4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is under one hundred thousand, two hundred fifty dollars;

(5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least one hundred thousand but less than two hundred fifty thousand, five hundred dollars; and

(6) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least two hundred fifty thousand, one thousand dollars.

2. For purposes of this subsection “base year amount” shall be the contribution limits prescribed in this section on January 1, 1995. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of January in each even-numbered year by multiplying the base year amount by the cumulative consumer price index, as defined in section 104.010, RSMo, and rounded to the nearest twenty-five-dollar amount, for all years since January 1, 1995.

3. Candidate committees, exploratory committees, campaign committees and continuing committees, other than those continuing committees which are political party committees, shall be subject to the limits prescribed in subsection 1 of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not limit the amount of contributions which may be accumulated by a candidate committee and used for expenditures to further the nomination or election of the candidate who controls such candidate who controls such candidate committee, except as otherwise provided in [section 130.052] this chapter.

4. No person, committee or other entity of any kind shall contribute to political party committees an aggregate amount in excess of five thousand dollars in any single calendar year.

5. Except as limited by this subsection, the amount of cash contributions, and a separate amount for the amount of in-kind contributions, made by or accepted from a political party committee in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, ten thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five thousand dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two thousand five hundred dollars; and

(4) To elect an individual to any other office of an electoral district, ward or unit, ten times the allowable contribution limit for the office sought.

The amount of contributions which may be made by or accepted from a political party committee in the primary election to elect any candidate who is unopposed in such primary shall be fifty percent of the amount of the allowable contributions as determined in this subsection.

[5.] 6. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age shall be considered made by the parents or guardians of such person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits prescribed in this chapter. Where the contributor under fourteen years of age has two custodial parents or guardians, fifty percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or guardian, and where such contributor has one custodial parent or guardian, all such contributions shall be attributed to the custodial parent or guardian.

[6.] 7. Contributions received and expenditures made prior to January 1, 1995, shall be reported as a separate account and pursuant to the laws in effect at the time such contributions are received or expenditures made. Contributions received and expenditures made after January 1, 1995, shall be reported as a separate account from the aforementioned account and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The account reported pursuant to the prior law shall be retained as a separate account and any remaining funds in such account may be used pursuant to this chapter and section 130.034.

[7.] 8. Any committee which accepts or gives contributions other than those allowed shall be subject to a surcharge of one thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission and which shall be transferred to the director of revenue, upon notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethic commission, and after the candidate has had ten business days after receipt of notice to return the contribution to the contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer or deputy treasurer owing a surcharge shall be personally liable for the payment of the surcharge or may pay such surcharge only from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of notice. Such surcharge shall constitute a debt to the state enforceable under, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo.”; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Long offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 6 was withdrawn.

Representative Bray moved that House Amendment No. 6 be adopted.
