Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 168.071, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 168.071, to read as follows:

168.071. 1. The Missouri state board of education may refuse to issue or renew, or may suspend or revoke a certificate of license to teach upon satisfactory proof of incompetency, cruelty, immorality, drunkenness, neglect of duty, or the annulling of a written contract for reasons other than election to the general assembly, with the local board of education without the consent of the majority of the members of the board which is a party to the contract. Charges may be filed by any school district or, at the request of the school district, by the office of the attorney general [if the school district has been identified as financially stressed pursuant to section 161.520, RSMo]. If the underlying conduct or actions which are the basis for charges filed [under] pursuant to this subsection are also the subject of a pending criminal charge against the person holding such certificate, and that person requests in writing a delayed hearing on advice of counsel [under] pursuant to the fifth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, no hearing shall be held until after final disposition of the criminal charge.

2. The state board of education may refuse to issue or renew, or may, upon hearing, suspend or revoke a certificate of license to teach if a certificate holder or applicant for a certificate has pleaded to or been found guilty of a felony or crime involving moral turpitude [under] pursuant to the laws of this state or any other state or of the United States, or any other

41 4. The certificate holder whose certificate was revoked pursuant to subsection 3 of this 42 section may appeal such revocation to the state board of education. The certificate holder whose 43 certificate has been revoked pursuant to subsection 3 of this section must notify the 44 commissioner of education of the intent to appeal by advising the commissioner within thirty 45 days of [the certificate holder's plea of guilty or finding of guilt of the intent to appeal] notice
46 of the revocation described in subsection 3 of this section. Failure of the certificate holder
47 to notify the commissioner of the intent to appeal waives all rights to appeal said revocation.
48 Upon notice of the certificate holder's intent to appeal, an appeal hearing shall be held by a 49 hearing officer designated by the commissioner of education, with the final decision made by the 50 state board of education, based upon the record of that hearing. The certificate holder shall be 51 given not less than thirty days' notice of the hearing, and an opportunity to be heard by the 52 hearing officer, together with witnesses. In those cases where the plea of guilty to or finding of

53 guilt of any of the offenses listed in subsection 3 of this section involve a minor child, testimony 54 from the minor child involved in the complaint shall not be required. The hearing officer shall 55 accept into the record the transcript of any testimony of a child involved in such offense if such 56 testimony was admitted in any court hearing. Subsection [6] 7 of this section shall apply to any 57 final decision made by the state board of education pursuant to this subsection.

58 5. The charges filed with the state board of education [under] pursuant to this section 59 shall be in writing and plainly and fully specify the basis for the charges. If filed by or at the 60 request of a local board of education, the charges shall be signed by the chief administrative 61 officer of the district or by the president of the board of education when so authorized by a 62 majority of the board. The certificate holder shall be given not less than thirty days' notice of the 63 hearing, and an opportunity to be heard, together with witnesses.

64 6. Contested cases and other matters involving certificate holders, licenses or 65 applicants pursuant to this section may be informally resolved by consent agreement,
66 agreed settlement or voluntary surrender of the certificate or license.

67 7. The certificate holder may appeal to the circuit court at any time within thirty days 68 after receipt of the final decision of the state board of education. The appeal shall be heard with 69 a jury at the option of either the certificate holder or the party filing the charges, and shall be tried 70 de novo, affirming or denying the action of the state board of education. Costs shall be taxed 71 against the appellant if the judgment of the state board of education is affirmed. In those cases
72 where the charges allege immorality by the certificate holder involving a minor child, such case 73 shall be heard by the court without a jury and any testimony from the minor child involved in the 74 complaint shall be taken directly from the hearing record taken on behalf of the state board of 75 education.

76 [7.] 8. The issuance of a certificate of license to teach to an individual who has been 77 convicted of a felony or crime involving moral turpitude shall be issued only upon motion of the 78 state board of education adopted by a unanimous affirmative vote of those members present and 79 voting.
