AN ACT

To repeal section 640.620, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to rural water grants.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 640.620, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 640.620, to read as follows:

640.620. In any case, the grant shall not be in excess of one thousand four hundred dollars per connection, or, in the case of a source water protection project, for more than twenty percent of the cost per acre for conservation reserve, and[, except as otherwise provided in this section,] no district or system may receive more than one grant for [any purpose] a construction project and one grant for a source water protection project in any two-year period. [Grantees who received or who are receiving funds under the 1993-1994 special allocation for flood-impacted communities are not subject to the prohibition against receiving more than one grant during any two-year period for a period ending two years after the final grant allocation for flood-impacted communities is received by that grantee.]

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.
