AN ACT

To repeal sections 167.031 and 167.051, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to compulsory age for school attendance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 167.031 and 167.051, RSMo, are repealed and two new sections 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 167.031 and 167.051, to read as follows:

167.031. 1. Every parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control
2 or custody of a child not enrolled in a public, private, parochial, parish school or full-time 3 equivalent attendance in a combination of such schools and between the ages of seven and 4 [sixteen] eighteen years is responsible for enrolling the child in a program of academic 5 instruction which complies with subsection 2 of this section. Any parent, guardian or other 6 person who enrolls a child between the ages of five and seven years in a public school program
7 of academic instruction shall cause such child to attend the academic program on a regular basis,
8 according to this section. Nonattendance by such child shall cause such parent, guardian or other 9 responsible person to be in violation of the provisions of section 167.061, except as provided by 10 this section. A parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control, or custody 11 of a child between the ages of seven and [sixteen] eighteen years of age shall cause the child to 12 attend regularly some public, private, parochial, parish, home school or a combination of such 13 schools not less than the entire school term of the school which the child attends; except that 14 (1) A child who, to the satisfaction of the superintendent of public schools of the district
15 in which he resides, or if there is no superintendent then the chief school officer, is determined 16 to be mentally or physically incapacitated may be excused from attendance at school for the full

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

17 time required, or any part thereof;

18 (2) A child between fourteen and [sixteen] eighteen years of age may be excused from 19 attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof, by the superintendent of 20 public schools of the district, or if there is none then by a court of competent jurisdiction, when 21 legal employment has been obtained by the child and found to be desirable, and after the parents 22 or guardian of the child have been advised of the pending action; or

23 (3) A child between five and seven years of age shall be excused from attendance at 24 school if a parent, guardian or other person having charge, control or custody of the child makes 25 a written request that the child be dropped from the school's rolls.

26 2. (1) As used in sections 167.031 to 167.071, a "home school" is a school, whether 27 incorporated or unincorporated, that:

28 (a) Has as its primary purpose the provision of private or religious-based instruction;

29 (b) Enrolls pupils between the ages of seven and [sixteen] eighteen years, of which no 30 more than four are unrelated by affinity or consanguinity in the third degree; and

31 (c) Does not charge or receive consideration in the form of tuition, fees, or other 32 remuneration in a genuine and fair exchange for provision of instruction;

33 (2) As evidence that a child is receiving regular instruction, the parent shall:

34 (a) Maintain the following records:

35 a. A plan book, diary, or other written record indicating subjects taught and activities 36 engaged in; and

37 b. A portfolio of samples of the child's academic work; and

38 c. A record of evaluations of the child's academic progress; or 39 d. Other written, or credible evidence equivalent to subparagraphs a., b. and c.; and

40 (b) Offer at least one thousand hours of instruction, at least six hundred hours of which 41 will be in reading, language arts, mathematics, social studies and science or academic courses 42 that are related to the aforementioned subject areas and consonant with the pupil's age and 43 ability. At least four hundred of the six hundred hours shall occur at the regular home school 44 location.

45 3. Nothing in this section shall require a private, parochial, parish or home school to 46 include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict with the school's religious 47 doctrines or to exclude from its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent with the 48 school's religious doctrines. Any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, all 49 departments or agencies of the state of Missouri shall be prohibited from dictating through rule,
50 regulation or other device any statewide curriculum for private, parochial, parish or home 51 schools.

52 4. A school year begins on the first day of July and ends on the thirtieth day of June

53 following.

54 5. The production by a parent of a daily log showing that a home school has a course of 55 instruction which satisfies the requirements of this section shall be a defense to any prosecution
56 under this section and to any charge or action for educational neglect brought pursuant to chapter
57 210, RSMo.

 167.051. 1. If a school board establishes part-time schools or classes for children under 2 [sixteen] eighteen years of age, lawfully engaged in any regular employment, every parent,
3 guardian or other person having charge, control or custody of such a child shall cause the child
4 to attend the school not less than four hours a week between the hours of eight o'clock in the 5 morning and five o'clock in the evening during the school year of the part-time classes.

6 2. All children who are under eighteen years of age, who have not completed the 7 elementary school course in the public schools of Missouri, or its equivalent, and who are not 8 attending regularly any day school shall be required to attend regularly the part-time classes not 9 less than four hours a week between the hours of eight o'clock in the morning and five o'clock 10 in the afternoon during the entire year of the part-time classes.
