

House Resolution No. 2543

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Josiah R. Bechthold, a student at the University of Missouri-Kansas City in Kansas City, has distinguished himself as an Intern for the Honorable Trent Skaggs, State Representative from District No. 31; and

Whereas, Josiah Bechthold joined the staff of Representative Skaggs for the Second Regular Session of the Ninety-second General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the state capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Josiah Bechthold has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Josiah Bechthold has successfully demonstrated his abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Skaggs run as smoothly as possible; and

Whereas, Josiah Bechthold has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Skaggs and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of knowledge and skills acquired prior to his tenure as an Intern and a variety of visible new skills which will be of tremendous value in the job market:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby proudly join the Honorable Trent Skaggs in commending Josiah Bechthold for his many important contributions to our State Legislature during the current session, and further extend to him our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Josiah R. Bechthold, as a measure of our deep gratitude.
