Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord our God, this Spring, people up and down the Missouri River are celebrating our blessings, blessings which reach back 200 years to the expedition of Lewis and Clark. We thank You for those blessings in the name of all the people of our State.

Within these Chambers we have reached the hard work of the last weeks of the 2004 Session of this body. We pray for ourselves.

Lord,
may everything we do
begin with Your inspiration and continue with Your help,
so that all our prayers and works
may begin in You and by You be happily ended.
Glory and praise to You,
forever and ever.
Amen.

“188.180. 1. The attending physician who is to perform or induce an abortion or a referring physician, or other qualified agent of either physician under the physician's supervision to whom the responsibility has been delegated by the physician, including but not limited to a nurse, physician assistant, or social worker, shall provide geographically indexed educational materials prepared pursuant to section 188.185 that are designed to inform the woman of alternatives to abortion agencies and alternatives to abortion services. The physician or the qualified agent of the physician actually providing such materials shall sign, and shall cause the patient to sign after receiving such materials, a written statement certifying that such materials have been delivered to and received by the patient. If the patient chooses to proceed with the abortion, all such executed statements shall be maintained as part of the patient's medical file, subject to the confidentiality laws and rules of this state.

2. The attending physician shall allow the patient twenty-four hours, prior to performing or inducing the abortion, for the patient to assimilate and consider the information regarding alternatives to abortion and to make a decision whether to proceed with the abortion or to carry her unborn child to term.

3. The physician shall be civilly liable to the patient and any other person sustaining loss, injury, or damages caused by the failure to comply with the provisions of this section. A court can enter any other appropriate relief, including injunctive relief, in order to prevent violations of this section. A physician who has been found to have violated the provisions of this section, whether or not damages are awarded, or who settles any claim or cause of action based upon the physician's violation of this section, shall be subject to discipline of the physician's license, certificate, or permit to practice medicine.

188.185. 1. The department shall develop geographically indexed educational materials, including but not limited to brochures and other media, about positive options during pregnancy and alternatives to abortion, including but not limited to the following:

(1) Alternatives to abortion agencies;

(2) Alternatives to abortion services and other services available to mothers of newborn children offered either directly by the state or its political subdivisions or by contractors with the state or its political subdivisions, or by private community-based programs, such services that include but are not limited to: prenatal care; medical and mental health care; parenting skills; drug and alcohol testing and treatment; child care; newborn or infant care; housing; utilities; educational services; food, clothing, and supplies relating to pregnancy, newborn care, and parenting; adoption assistance; job training and placement; establishing and promoting responsible paternity; domestic abuse protection; and transportation.

3. The materials shall include a comprehensive list of the agencies providing such alternatives to abortion services and other services, a description of the services offered by each agency, and the addresses and telephone numbers of each agency. The list shall not include any agency which performs, induces, or refers for abortion or which holds itself out as performing, inducing, or referring for abortions. The following statement shall be prominently placed within such materials: "There are many public and private agencies willing and able to help you to carry your child to term, and to assist you and your child after your child is born, whether you choose to keep your child or place him or her for adoption. The State of Missouri strongly urges you to contact these agencies before making a final decision about abortion. State law requires that your physician or his or her agent give you the opportunity to contact agencies like these before you undergo an abortion."

4. The department shall publicly solicit alternatives to abortion agencies and other public and private agencies providing alternatives to abortion services to provide information to the commission about the agency and the services rendered by the agency. The commission may utilize already existing lists of agencies providing alternatives to abortion services within the state in preparing the materials required by this section, including information collected pursuant to the adoption awareness law, section 191.975, RSMo.

5. The materials shall be distributed by the department to family planning clinics, abortion facilities, hospitals where abortions are performed or induced, and physicians who perform or induce abortions; provided, however, that if necessary to preserve the confidentiality of abortion facilities, hospitals where abortions are performed or induced, or physicians who perform or induce abortions, the department shall distribute such materials on behalf of the commission. Such materials shall also be available to the public through the commission's Internet web site."; and

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 27, 2004

TO THE CHIEF CLERK OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY
STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1304 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 355.176, 408.040, 508.010, 508.040, 508.070, 508.120, 510.263, 516.105, 537.035, 537.067, 538.205, 538.210, 538.220, and 538.225, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof sixteen new sections relating to claims for damages and the payment thereof.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1304. As I stated last year in my veto of SB 280, if HB 1304 were signed into law, it would represent a fundamental shift of civil procedural burdens from the tortfeasor to the injured party. While HB 1304 does address some legitimate medical malpractice concerns such as reversing the Scott decision, it fails to sufficiently and fairly balance the interests of injured parties and defendants in all other types of personal injury cases. The majority of its provisions would create inappropriately high barriers for legitimate claims of injury. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

I. HB 1304 does not include medical liability insurance reform.

I have repeatedly called on the General Assembly to address medical liability insurance reform in a meaningful manner. HB 1304 fails to do that. Real insurance reform would include at a minimum: (a) adoption of the California system, ensuring the public can examine and comment upon large malpractice rate increases and that the state can block them; (b) easing the current hardships that physicians face in obtaining coverage by allowing them to electronically apply for insurance policies with every writer in the state at no cost; and (c) requiring insurers to give physicians and other healthcare providers reasonable notice about rate increases and nonrenewals so that they can make arrangements for alternative coverage.

II. HB 1304 goes far beyond addressing the rising costs of medical liability premiums.

I have stated from the beginning of this debate that I will only consider a bill that is limited to medical malpractice liability reform. The General Assembly presents HB 1304 as a solution to the rising costs of medical malpractice insurance premiums, but its heart and soul are five provisions that would unfairly benefit all tortfeasors, not merely health care providers. The provisions of the bill concerning joint and several liability, collateral source, venue, pre- and post-judgment interest, and punitive damages combine to impose draconian restrictions on the legal rights of legitimate plaintiffs. The principal beneficiaries of these restrictions would not be doctors, but large corporate interests seeking to protect their bottom line at the expense of injured plaintiffs.

To cite but one example of the excesses of this bill, HB 1304 would make Missouri's venue law the most one-sided in the nation. Historically, it has been viewed as the right of the injured party to choose the venue within prescribed rules. Defendants then have the ability to make limited challenges to the site of venue. Under HB 1304, for injuries occurring within the State of Missouri venue would be limited to the judicial circuit where the injury occurred. This choice for venue is extraordinary in that the location of the injury may have no connection to the convenience of either the plaintiff or defendant. For example, a Kirksville resident injured in Joplin would be required to litigate the claim in Joplin, even if the tortfeasor were also a Kirksville resident. To further confuse the issue, venue for out-of-state injuries under this bill would be determined based on residency. By treating in-state and out-of-state injuries differently, the General Assembly has created a substantial constitutional question as to equal protection.

III. HB 1304 would increase lawsuits against health care providers.

The likely result of this bill, if it became law, is perverse: more doctors becoming defendants in more lawsuits. HB 1304 limits recovery of non-economic damages to four hundred thousand dollars, regardless of the number of defendants. While I support limiting non-economic damages, HB 1304 foolishly applies the caps to any other party that is a defendant in a lawsuit brought against a healthcare provider or that is a defendant in any lawsuit that arises out of the rendering of or failure to render healthcare services. This provision clearly encourages corporate defendants to bring third-party lawsuits against health care providers. When a non-medical defendant is sued, it is in the best interest of that defendant, if at all possible, to bring a cross claim against a health care provider. By drawing a healthcare provider into a suit, the limitation caps would apply to the non-health care provider as well. An example of this would be if a semi-tractor trailer were involved in an accident with an auto. If the auto driver is injured and is given medical attention at a nearby hospital, it is in the best interest of the trucking company to claim that at least part of the driver's injuries were caused by negligent health care at the hospital. By drawing the health care provider in the suit through a cross claim, the trucking company can potentially enjoy the cap limitations.

IV. Missouri needs to take more meaningful steps to solve the medical insurance crisis.

The legislature has failed to act on insurance reform or real medical liability reform for over a year, and continues that failure with this bill. My administration has been taking extraordinary steps to help physicians obtain necessary coverage at the most affordable rates available and we will continue to do so.

The Missouri Department of Insurance (MDI) is expediting the licensing of qualified new insurers. Missouri has licensed nine new insurers to write coverage for physicians and surgeons - an unusual influx of insurers into this market, which has serious difficulties attracting investment and expanding nationwide.

Today, ten companies officially report to MDI that they are actively writing new Missouri physicians who apply, up from five in January 2003. Another large hospital chain's "captive" insurer is just beginning to write private doctors who are "on staff" at its facilities, but not directly employed.

MDI has determined that physicians in some specialties cannot obtain coverage without grave difficulties, and state insurance Director Scott Lakin activated the Missouri Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association to begin writing policies. The JUA expects to make that coverage available for any physician in the June 2004 renewal cycle.

I also established a 15-member Commission on Patient Safety, which is to report its recommendations by July 1 on how to reduce the rate of bad outcomes and medical errors in the state.

Finally, much of physicians' consternation about medical malpractice rates involves the squeeze on doctors between rising insurance costs and flat or declining income, particularly because they have agreed to steep insurance company discounts to their services. Many HMOs and other insurers have failed to make timely payments to physicians. I signed into law in 2002 a "prompt pay" law, and MDI began fining violators up to $100,000 each in 2003. Another eight such exams are almost completed. Such fines and ongoing exams have sent a warning signal to other insurers and HMOs that the state will act unless they pay physicians promptly, as required by Missouri law.

While these measures are important, they should not obscure the central fact: this legislature has consistently failed to pass real medical liability reform and meaningful insurance reform. Instead, they have passed a politically-motivated gift to corporate interests that is more likely to harm the health care community than provide any relief.

For all of the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1304 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Bob Holden
Governor
