SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 11, 2004

Save the people and bless your inheritance;
feed them and carry them forever!”
(Psalm 28:8-9)

Give us the strength, O Lord, to complete the work of this last week of our 2004 session. Many topics will come before us; some important issues must be decided. By Your grace may we discern what is best for those most in need, what sustains the common good, what is demanded by Your truth.

We pray to You, who are our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The individual may receive an amount of $50.00 per day for each day of post-conviction incarceration for the crime for which the individual is determined to be actually innocent. The petition for the payment of said restitution shall be filed with the sentencing court within one year of the release from confinement after August 28, 2003. For the purposes of this subsection the term “actually innocent” shall mean:

An individual who receives restitution pursuant to this subsection shall be prohibited from seeking any civil redress from the state, its departments and agencies, or any employee thereof, or any political subdivision or its employees. This subsection shall not be construed as a waiver of sovereign immunity for any purposes other than the restitution provided for herein. The department shall determine the aggregate amount of restitution owed during a fiscal year. If moneys remain in the fund on June 30th of each fiscal year, the remaining moneys shall be used to pay restitution to those individuals who have received an order awarding restitution under this subsection during the past fiscal year. If insufficient moneys remain in the fund on June 30th of each fiscal year to pay restitution to such persons, the department shall pay each individual who has received an order awarding restitution a pro rata share of the amount such person is owed. The remaining amounts owed to such individual shall be paid from the fund on June 30th of each subsequent fiscal year, provided moneys remain in the fund on June 30th, until such time as the restitution to the individual has been paid in full. No interest on unpaid restitution shall be awarded to the individual. If there are no moneys remaining in the DNA profiling analysis fund, then no payments shall be made under this subsection. No individual who has been determined by the court to be actually innocent shall be responsible for the costs of care under section 217.831, RSMo.

10. If the results of the DNA testing confirm the person's guilt, then the person filing for DNA testing under section 547.035, RSMo shall:

(a) Be liable for any reasonable costs incurred when conducting the DNA test, including but not limited to the cost of the test. Such costs shall be determined by the court and shall be included in the findings of fact and conclusions of law made by the court; and

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1020, 889 & 869, Page 3, Section 493.050, Line 23 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"537.805. 1. Any person who:

- (1) Knowingly presents or causes to be presented, to an official or employee of the state, a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval;
- (2) Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or approved by the state;
- (3) Knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered, less property or money used, or to be used, by the state, than the amount for which the person receives a certificate or receipt;
- (4) Knowingly delivers a document certifying receipt of property used, or to be used, by the state without completely knowing that the information on the receipt is true;
- (5) Knowingly buys or receives as a pledge of an obligation or debt, public property from an official or employee of the state who lawfully may not sell or pledge the property;
- (6) Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the state;
- (7) Conspires to defraud the state by getting a false or fraudulent claim allowed or paid;

is liable to the state for a penalty for each false claim of not less than five thousand dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars, plus three times the amount of actual damages which the state sustains because of the act of that person.

2. If the court finds that:

- (1) The person committing the violation of this section furnished officials of the state responsible for investigating false claims violations with all information known to such person about the violation within thirty days after the date on which the defendant first obtained the information;
- (2) Such person fully cooperated with any state investigation of such violation; and
- (3) At the time such person furnished the state with the information about the violation, no criminal prosecution, civil action, or administrative action had commenced with respect to such violation, and the person did not have actual knowledge of the existence of an investigation into such violation;

the court may assess only the amount of damages which the state sustains because of the act of the person. The court may also grant immunity from criminal prosecution to such person for good cause at the request of the state. Any person violating subsection 1 of this section shall also be liable for the costs of any civil action brought to recover any such damages or penalties.

3. The state may dismiss the action, notwithstanding the objections of the person initiating the action if the person has been notified by the state of the filing of the motion and the court has provided the person with an opportunity for a hearing on the motion.

4. The state may settle the action with the defendant notwithstanding the objections of the person initiating the action if the court determines, after a hearing, that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under all the circumstances. Upon a showing of good cause, such hearing may be held in camera.

5. As used in this section the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Claim", includes, but is not limited to, each request or demand, whether under a contract or otherwise, for money or property which is made to the state or to a contractor, grantee, or other recipient if the state provides any portion of the money or property which is requested or demanded, or if the state will reimburse such contractor, grantee, or other recipient for any portion of the money or property which is requested or demanded;

(2) "Knowing" and "Knowingly", a person:

(a) Has actual knowledge of the information;

(b) Acts in deliberate ignorance of the truth or falsity of the information; or

(c) Acts with specific intent to defraud.

537.810. 1. The attorney general shall investigate violations of section 537.805. The attorney general may bring a civil action in the name of the state if the attorney general finds that a person has violated or is violating section 537.805. But if any action involving the same violations has already been filed by a person under section 537.805, the state may only intervene in it as set forth in this section.

2. Any person may bring a civil action for a violation of section 537.805 in the name of the person and on behalf of the state. No such action shall be dismissed without the written consent of the attorney general after court approval.

3. The complaint shall be filed in camera, shall remain under seal for up to one hundred eighty days from the date of filing, and shall not be served on the defendant until the court so orders.

4. A copy of the petition filed by any person pursuant to sections 537.805 to 537.810 shall be served on the attorney general along with a disclosure statement describing the fraudulent acts or omissions and setting forth all evidence known to the person in support of the claims. The attorney general may proceed with the action by entering an appearance within one hundred eighty days of being served. The attorney general may, for good cause, extend such one hundred eighty day period upon request to the court, as necessary and may, for good cause shown, move the court for extensions of the time during which the complaint remains under seal pursuant to subsection 3 of this section. Any such motions may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera. The court may not grant extensions beyond one year from the date the action was filed. The defendant shall not be required to respond to any complaint filed pursuant to this section until thirty days after the complaint is unsealed and served upon the defendant. The person bringing the action may proceed with the action if the attorney general:

(1) By the end of the one hundred eighty day period or whatever extensions are granted by the court does not file a motion to intervene or obtain a continuance of the aforesaid time period; or

(2) Does not proceed with the action with reasonable diligence within six months after filing a motion to intervene, or within additional time the court allows after notice to the person bringing the action.

5. Except as provided in subsection 8 of this section, when a person brings an action pursuant to this section, no one else may bring a related action based on the facts underlying the pending action and only the attorney general may intervene pursuant to subsection 4 of this section.

6. If the attorney general initiates or intervenes in the action, it shall be conducted solely by the state, with notice of all proceedings to the person who filed the action as another party. The state is not bound by any act of the person bringing the action.

7. Unless the state proceeds with the action, the court shall dismiss an action brought by the person if the action is based on evidence or information known to the state when the action was brought.

8. If the false or fraudulent claim involves the attorney general's office, then the state auditor shall assume all powers, duties, and obligations that the attorney general has pursuant to section 537.805 and this section.

9. If the state proceeds with the action, the person bringing the action may receive an amount the court decides is reasonable. The amount may not be more than twenty-five percent nor less than fifteen percent of the proceeds of the action and shall be paid out of those proceeds. The person shall also receive reasonable attorney's fees and costs, to be awarded against the defendant.

10. If the state does not proceed with an action, the person bringing the action may receive an amount the court decides is reasonable. The amount may not be more than thirty-five percent nor less than twenty-five percent of the proceeds of the action or settlement and shall be paid out of those proceeds. The person may also recover costs and reasonable attorney's fees from the defendant.

11. The state shall not be liable for costs or attorney's fees a person incurs in bringing an action pursuant to this section.

12. No court shall have jurisdiction over an action brought under this section by a former or present member of the armed forces against a member of the armed forces arising out of such person's service in the armed forces.

13. No court shall have jurisdiction over an action brought under this section against a member of the general assembly, a member of the judiciary, or a senior executive branch official if the action is based on evidence or information known to the government when the action was brought.

14. In no event may a person bring an action which is based upon allegations or transactions which were the subject of a civil suit or an administrative civil monetary penalty proceeding in which the government is already a party.

15. No court shall have jurisdiction over an action under this section based upon the public disclosure of allegations or transactions in a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing, in a report, hearing, audit, or investigation by the general assembly or the executive branch, or from the news media, unless the action is brought by the attorney general or the person bringing the action is an original source of the information. For purposes of this subsection, "original source" means an individual who has direct and independent knowledge of the information on which the allegations are based and has voluntarily provided the information to the government before filing an action under this section which is based on the information."; and
