

HB 1498 -- A+ School Program

Sponsor: Schneider

Currently, a student who qualifies for the A+ Program must attend a public community college or a vocational or technical school. This bill permits qualified students to attend accredited private vocational and technical schools. Reimbursements at these schools must not exceed the community college tuition rate for similar course work or violate the state constitutional provisions that prohibit the use of public funds for religious purposes.