

HB 104 -- Personal Records

Sponsor: Cunningham (86)

This bill prohibits government agencies from employing a person with a criminal record in any position that would have access to personal records with unique personal identifiers including residential mailing addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, drivers' license numbers, and Social Security numbers.