

HB 178 -- Municipal Probation Officers

Sponsor: Yates

This bill allows municipal judges to employ a person, or to contract with a public entity, to provide probation services for people convicted of municipal ordinance violations, such as driving while intoxicated. Current law allows municipal judges to contract only with private entities for probation services.