

HB 799 -- Birth and Death Records

Sponsor: Schaaf

This bill requires a birth certificate to be filed within five days, instead of the current seven days, certifying the place, time, and date of the live birth by a signature or an electronic process approved by the Department of Health and Senior Services.

All medical certificates when filing for a certificate of death can have their accuracy attested to by either a signature or an electronic process approved by the department.