

HB 893 -- Public Rights-of-Way

Sponsor: Pratt

This bill permits any telecommunications corporation or company; Internet service provider; company supplying voice-over Internet protocol, electronic data, Internet, or broadband access; satellite television or satellite dish provider; gas corporation; public water or sewer district; water corporation; sewer corporation; electric corporation; or cable television company to place facilities or systems within the right-of-way of any state highway, county road, or other political subdivision.