Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2006, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article III of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Sections 2 and 9, article III, Constitution of Missouri, are repealed and two new sections adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 2 and 9, to read as follows:

Section 2. The house of representatives shall consist of one hundred sixty-three members and, beginning with the ninety-seventh general assembly, one hundred thirty-seven members, elected at each general election and apportioned in the following manner: Within sixty days after the population of this state is reported to the President for each decennial census of the United States and, in the event that a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent jurisdiction, within sixty days after notification by the governor that such a ruling has been made, the congressional district committee of each of the two parties casting the highest vote for governor at the last preceding election shall meet and the members of the committee

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

9 shall nominate, by a majority vote of the members of the committee present, provided that a 10 majority of the elected members is present, two members of their party, residents in that district, 11 as nominees for reapportionment commissioners. Neither party shall select more than one 12 nominee from any one state legislative district. The congressional committees shall each submit 13 to the governor their list of elected nominees. Within thirty days the governor shall appoint a 14 commission consisting of one name from each list to reapportion the state into one hundred and 15 sixty-three representative districts and, beginning with the ninety-seventh general assembly,
16 one hundred thirty-seven districts, and to establish the numbers and boundaries of said 17 districts.

18 If any of the congressional committees fails to submit a list within such time the governor 19 shall appoint a member of his own choice from that district and from the political party of the 20 committee failing to make the appointment.

21 Members of the commission shall be disqualified from holding office as members of the 22 general assembly for four years following the date of the filing by the commission of its final 23 statement of apportionment.

24 For the purposes of this article, the term congressional district committee or 25 congressional district refers to the congressional district committee or the congressional district
26 from which a congressman was last elected, or, in the event members of congress from this state 27 have been elected at large, the term congressional district committee refers to those persons who 28 last served as the congressional district committee for those districts from which congressmen 29 were last elected, and the term congressional district refers to those districts from which 30 congressmen were last elected. Any action pursuant to this section by the congressional district 31 committee shall take place only at duly called meetings, shall be recorded in their official 32 minutes and only members present in person shall be permitted to vote.

33 The commissioners so selected shall on the fifteenth day, excluding Sundays and 34 holidays, after all members have been selected, meet in the capitol building and proceed to 35 organize by electing from their number a [chairman] chair, vice [chairman] chair and secretary 36 and shall adopt an agenda establishing at least three hearing dates on which hearings open to the 37 public shall be held. A copy of the agenda shall be filed with the clerk of the house of 38 representatives within twenty-four hours after its adoption. Executive meetings may be scheduled 39 and held as often as the commission deems advisable.

40 The commission shall reapportion the representatives by dividing the population of the 41 state by the number one hundred sixty-three and, beginning with the ninety-seventh general 42 assembly, the number one hundred thirty-seven, and shall establish each district so that the 43 population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure.

44 Each district shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact as may be.

45 Not later than five months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall 46 file with the secretary of state a tentative plan of apportionment and map of the proposed districts 47 and during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold such public hearings as may be necessary to hear 48 objections or testimony of interested persons.

49 Not later than six months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall 50 file with the secretary of state a final statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the districts 51 together with a map of the districts, and no statement shall be valid unless approved by at least 52 seven-tenths of the members.

53 After the statement is filed members of the house of representatives shall be elected 54 according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided, except that if the 55 statement is not filed within six months of the time fixed for the appointment of the commission,
56 it shall stand discharged and the house of representatives shall be apportioned by a commission
57 of six members appointed from among the judges of the appellate courts of the state of Missouri 58 by the state supreme court, a majority of whom shall sign and file its apportionment plan and 59 map with the secretary of state within ninety days of the date of the discharge of the 60 apportionment commission. Thereafter members of the house of representatives shall be elected 61 according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided.

62 Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars a day for 63 each day the commission is in session but not more than one thousand dollars, and, in addition,
64 shall be reimbursed for his actual and necessary expenses incurred while serving as a member 65 of the commission.

66 No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

Section 9. Until the convening of the [Seventy-fourth] ninety-seventh general assembly 2 the house of representatives shall consist of one hundred sixty-three members elected from the 3 one hundred sixty-three representative districts, as they existed [January 1, 1965] during the 4 ninety-sixth general assembly. Beginning with the ninety-seventh general assembly, the 5 house of representatives shall consist of one hundred thirty-seven members pursuant to 6 section 2 of this article.
