

HB 1123 -- Workers' Compensation Benefits

Sponsor: Wildberger

This bill requires that certain diseases resulting from exposure to certain occupational hazards be recognized as an occupational disease. This provision applies to firefighters and police officers. Firefighters and police officers, at the expense of the employer, are to undergo heart and lung examinations.