

HB 1244 -- Interior Designers

Sponsor: Ruestman

This bill reduces the verification of experience requirements for registered commercial interior designers from five to two client references and five to two industry references to be submitted to the National Council for Interior Design Qualification.