

HB 1347 -- Course Requirements for Public Higher Education

Sponsor: Myers

This bill imposes two course requirements on students entering public higher education institutions in the fall semester of 2007. These students must take a three-hour American history course and a three-hour American literature course in order to graduate.