

HB 1608 -- Department of Insurance

Sponsor: Wilson (130)

This bill modifies various fees charged by the Department of Insurance for the regulation of insurance companies and the operation of the Division of Consumer Affairs.

The expenses for an examination of a company will be paid by the company. The department director will assess the company for all reasonable expenses including the cost of compensation and travel for the examiners, analysts, actuaries, and attorneys directly contributing to the examination of the company.
