

HB 1882 -- Increased Imprisonment for Certain Crimes

Sponsor: Dixon

This bill allows the maximum term of imprisonment for crimes relating to sexual offenses and crimes against families to be increased up to 10 years. The crime must have been one that is subject to imprisonment, committed against a child younger than 14 years of age, and committed by a person responsible for the child's welfare.