

HB 2115 -- Alimony and Maintenance

Sponsor: Ruestman

This bill requires a court, upon a finding that a former spouse is cohabitating or has cohabitated with another person in a relationship of a romantic nature, to terminate alimony and maintenance payments to the former spouse. The bill also defines "cohabitation" as the act of two adults dwelling together continuously and habitually for at least 90 days in a romantic relationship, even if the relationship is not solemnized by marriage. Termination of spousal alimony or maintenance will not relieve the former spouse of any required child support payments.
