

SCS SB 749 -- INTERIOR DESIGNERS

This bill reduces the verification of experience requirements for registered commercial interior designers that is submitted to the National Council for Interior Design Qualification from five to two client references and from five to three industry references.