

SCS SB 765 -- Emergency Medical Treatment

Sponsor: Dougherty

This substitute specifies that informed consent is not required for research programs or experimental medical procedures for patients subject to a life-threatening emergency when conducted in accordance with certain federal regulations.

The substitute contains an emergency clause.