

SB 1020 -- FUEL STORAGE TANKS

This bill requires anyone who manufactures, installs, or repairs fuel storage tanks or piping for the tanks to maintain evidence of financial responsibility of $1 million per occurrence and $2 million in the aggregate to cover the costs of corrective action after a fuel release. The evidence of financial responsibility must be submitted annually to the Department of Agriculture.